

MEET SON ALMA MATER
Judge John W. Shenk of Los Angeles plans to go back next week to his alma mater, Ohio Wesleyan University, which his elder son, John Shenk, is also attending, and make the return trip to California with him. The judge will spend several days renewing old friendships on the Wesleyan campus. Sam Shenk is just completing his freshman year at the institution, and will return there after his summer vacation at home.

STANFORD SENIOR WOMEN HEAR TALK ON A.A.U.W.
Senior women at Stanford University will meet at the women's clubhouse Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for an informal talk on the work and opportunities of the American Association of University Women. The meeting will precede the garden party being given for the graduates by Miss Mary Yost, dean of women.

ENJOY OUTING IN YOSEMITE
Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kirkpatrick of the Purissima district; their two children, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick's sister, Mrs. Max Steinknecht, are here on a visit from Bakersfield, where members of a party who spent several days of last week in the Yosemite valley. The trip was made by motor.

A. S. S. U. EXECUTIVES TO BANQUET TONIGHT
Members of the executive committee of the Associated Students of Stanford University will gather at the Cardinal Hotel tonight for banquet and final meeting. Presidents of the Associated Women Students and Women's Athletic Association have been invited, together with chairmen of A. S. S. committees.

NEAREST EXPECTED FROM LOS ANGELES
Mrs. Gordon Latham, formerly Connie Gough of Los Altos, will come north in June for a visit to friends here. She will be accompanied by her infant son, who recently won the highest prize at a baby show in the southern city, scoring on the three counts of intelligence, physical development and beauty.

WASHINGTON PEOPLE VISITING HERE
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Low and family of Roslyn, Wash., are guests at the home of the former's brother, A. M. Buchanan. They are on their way home from Whittier, where they passed the winter. Mrs. P. L. King of Crockett, a sister of Mr. Low and Mr. Buchanan, is here for a week's visit.

COMES HOME FROM VOYAGE
W. Thompson returned to his Los Altos home a few days ago from a world voyage taken on the steamer Belgenland, on which he acts as publicity agent for the company owning the vessel. Mrs. Thompson met him at Panama and made the rest of the return trip with him.

ODD FELLOWS TO ENTERTAIN REBEKAHS
Live Oak Lodge, No. 171, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will entertain Rebekahs and their families at a dance this evening. The event will follow a short business meeting in the blue room of the Masonic Temple, after which the Odd Fellows and their guests will assemble in the auditorium.

FAMILY MOVES

MEMORIAL CHURCH WEDDING THIS MORNING UNITES COUPLE

MISS ALICE MAY DOWN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Down of San Jose, and Charles Edward Luckhardt, San Jose attorney and Stanford University graduate, were united in marriage this morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Stanford Memorial Church. Dr. D. Charles Gardner, university chaplain, officiated in the presence of a few immediate relatives of the couple.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a traveling ensemble of army blue young lambs' wool, with a collar of summer ermine. Her accessories were in tan. The corsage was of orchids and lilies of the valley.

After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents in San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. Luckhardt left for a wedding trip. On their return, they will establish their home in San Jose, where the bridegroom is associated with a law firm.

Mrs. Luckhardt was graduated from the University of California and holds an M.A. degree from that institution. She is now a member of the history faculty of the San Jose State Teachers' College and is affiliated with Erosophian Society. Her husband is a son of Mrs. William Luckhardt and the late Mr. Luckhardt of San Jose. He received both his A.B. and J.D. degrees from the Stanford Law School.

Club Luncheon Is Pleasant Affair

Sixty members and guests gathered at the Palo Alto Woman's Clubhouse yesterday afternoon for the annual Founders' Day luncheon of the club. Past presidents and guests of honor were seated at a large round table, near which smaller tables were grouped. Sweet peas and fern were used in decorating both the tables and the room, which was softly lighted. Mrs. E. C. Wild had arranged the decorations. The luncheon was prepared and served by the board of directors under the chairmanship of Mrs. Walter Rodgers.

At the president's table were Mrs. Warren Littlefield, chairman of the drama and radio division of the California State Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Jay T. Cooper, San Mateo county federation president; Mrs. Marie de Forest Emery, vocal soloist of the afternoon; Mrs. J. M. Mannon and Miss Laura Lee, who played piano numbers; and the five past presidents who were present—Mrs. J. S. Lakin, Mrs. F. W. Stuart, Mrs. Emily S. Dixon, Mrs. Robert L. Cody and Mrs. C. H. Barnard. Mrs. F. G. Frink and Mrs. Ernest Wilson, the two other past presidents, were unable to attend.

Mrs. Norman E. Malcolm, who was re-elected chief executive for another year, outlined the work accomplished by the club during the past season, sketched plans for next year, and gave highlights of the state convention. The clubhouse property, she said, is now conservatively valued at $25,000 and is equipped to serve 150 persons. In recognition of her services to the club, Mrs. Malcolm was presented by the board with a potted plant.

Miss Lee and Mrs. Mannon played "The Dance of the Flowers" from Tchaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite," and a quartet arrangement from "Rigoletto." Mrs. Emery's numbers were "Only a Rose," "In a Luxembourg Garden" (Kathleen Manning), "Happy Song" (Del Riego) and "A California Lullaby." Miss Lee accompanied her.

On informal social hour followed the luncheon and program.

IS VISITOR IN LOS ALTOS

Mrs. J. F. Raber of San Francisco is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Davenport, who lives on Pepper drive in Los Altos. She plans to make an extended stay here.

Stanford Senior To Wed June 25

June 25 is the date for the wedding of Miss Grace Humphrey of Fort Collins, Colo., and Merle F. Emery, Stanford senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Emery of Palo Alto. The event is to take place in Fort Collins.

The bride-elect was graduated from Stanford University last June and belongs to Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Her fiancé will receive his degree with distinction next month. His fraternity is Delta Tau Delta.

COUPLE RETURNING TO OLD COUNTRY

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sjöqvist and their young son, who have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. M. Brandt, on O'Keefe avenue in Los Altos, started Sunday on the return journey to their home in Denmark. Mrs. Sjöqvist had been here for a year, and her husband and son joined her six months ago.

CALLED FROM PASADENA BY ILLNESS IN FAMILY

Mrs. Carrie Hinckley of Pasadena is visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hinckley, at 565 Forest lane, Menlo Park. Mrs. Lloyd Hinckley is seriously ill.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB TO HAVE BARBECUE

The Stanford Cosmopolitan Club will hold a barbecue at Searsville Lake tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Sam MacDonald, an honorary member of the club, will prepare and serve the supper.

Chu-Chang Liang, a Boxer Indemnity Fund student from Tsinghua College, is the new president of the club. Other officers for next year are Miss Betty Forbes, vice president; Miss Alice Behner, secretary; and Denny Woodworth, treasurer.

LOS ALTOS GIRLS TO GET COLLEGE DEGREE

Miss Marie Whitlam Moore of Los Altos will be among the 489 students who receive degrees from Oregon State College June 2. She is graduating from the School of Home Economics.

DARJEELING TEA

This tea is the highest quality tea grown. It grows on the slopes of the Himalayas. This tea is renowned for its wonderful flavor. Imported by McMillan Coffee Co., 381 Univ. Ave. Per pound $1.50.—Advertisement.

To Our Friends:

We, the undersigned, are supporting Mayor James Rolph, Jr., for Governor.

Robert W. Vincent and Myrtle L. Vincent

DU CO...

beautiful—dries quickly

YOU will be amazed at the ease of applying Duco and the perfect results the very first time you try. Duco dries quickly—the danger and inconvenience of wet paint are avoided. Duco colors have the deep-toned life and sparkle of jewels, with the warm lustre of polished ivory. Try Duco for your next touch-up job around the house.

DU PONT PAINTS, VARNISHES, DU CO

CARDINAL HARDWARE CO.

357 University Ave., Palo Alto

Palo Alto Times
5/29/1930
P87

new....

milk satisfaction

....for you!

START HOME DAIRY SERVICE on JUNE 1st