Herman A. Dendinger, et al., v. Chrysler Plastic Products Corporation, et al., Case No. C84-7854

Counsel:

The following is an update of the status of the above-captioned matters and an announcement of a meeting of counsel.

On June 14, 1985, John J. McHugh of this office and Kirk J. Delli Bovi, attorney for the plaintiffs, stipulated that the above defendants may have an extension of time until July 24, 1985 within which to move, plead or otherwise respond to the plaintiffs' first amended complaints in each of the above-captioned matters. Subsequently, on June 17, 1985, we received notice, copies of which are enclosed herewith, from Mr. Delli Bovi that plaintiffs will take the videotape trial testimony of

Fred A. Wallace on July 17, 1985 and that of Herman A. Dending r on August 1, 1985. The Group will, of course, be represented at said proceedings.

It is important that we meet with inside counsel of all members of the Group in order to prepare for the aforesaid videotape trial testimony and discuss preparation of an answer and future strategy. Accordingly, a meeting is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, July 9, 1985, at the Sheraton Hopkins Airport Hotel, 5300 Riverside Drive in Cleveland, Ohio. Lunch will be provided. Additionally, at Harold Fast's suggestion, we will be inviting M. Donald Carmin, counsel for Chrysler, to our meeting to assist in planning a coordinated defense. All inside counsel for the members of the Group should plan to attend.

Please advise me promptly if this date poses any scheduling conflict.

Very truly yours,

Louis E. Tosi
