mittee during the week in resolving differences on other portions of the large constitutional revision plan which would update one-third of the state's basic law on the basis of recommendations by a special blue-ribbon citizen commission. The compromises on other provisions will also be in form for discussion by Monday, he disclosed.

Transit Group Bosses' Night

The North Bay Women's Transportation Club will present a Gay Nineties Show in conjunction with their annual Bosses' Night dinner Wednesday night at the Vallejo Country Club. There will be a no-host cocktail hour beginning at 7 p.m., followed by the dinner and program.

Featured will be Geri Gordon singing a selection of old favorites from the period. She has appeared in night clubs, musical comedies and on television during her career. Accompanist will be Helen Kask. The pair appeared in melodrama a couple of seasons back at the Soscol House.

The committee arranging the event includes Mrs. Russell Gerlach, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ellis Wright and Mrs. Roy Himes. They asked that reserva-
