

1 distributed.

2 Ford's response was, libraries are 3 maintained in the following sections, medical,
4 industrial hygiene, toxicology and health surveillance
5 system.

6 Among these journals, books and other
7 publications are references to asbestos. There is no
8 specific depository solely dedicated to the topic of 9 asbestos.

10 The following journals, among others, were 11 subscribed to, at some times during the period from 12 1928 to the present, by the medical department, and 13 then it lists various journals.

14 Industrial Health, Industrial Medicine and 15 Surgery, Journal of Occupational Medicine, Journal of 16 American Medical Association, Archives of 17 Environmental Health, British Journal of Industrial 18 Medicine, Annals of Occupational Hygiene, and Journals
19 of American Industrial Hygiene Association.

20 The following journals, among others, were
21 subscribed to by the Industrial Hygiene -- by