Lee,

I hope you are enjoying your leadership position at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). That was the first place I worked during my first exposure to Washington, DC. In 1991. I was an intern in Pat Quinn's Congressional Affairs office and had the tremendous experience of working with Bill Reilly and Hank Habicht. There were so many incredible people at EPA during that time and I'll bet a few are still working hard at the agency.

This invitation just crossed my desk (attached) – I hope you are able to do it and if so, I'll make sure to be there cheering you on ☺

Warm regards and my congratulations on working at a great agency – thank you for your service!

Kind regards,
Tom
