enthusiastic in their praise of the beauty, convenience and splendid equipment of the new hospital.

Mrs. N. G. Nagle, one of the club's oldest members, was present at the meeting for the first time in many months. She told of the early days of the organization and pointed to several accomplishments of that time which might well be followed by the society as it is now.

The club will hold a social meeting when it next convenes. An interesting program will be furnished by the entertainment committee who will also serve refreshments. The committee members are: Mrs W. F. Way, Mrs. H. G. Jorgensen and Mrs. F. R. Hart.

DINNER PARTY IN PRESIDIO HOME

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Swartz and Lieutenant and Mrs. Grant Heninger were joint hosts at a most enjoyable dinner last Friday given in Lieutenant and Mrs. Swartz's quarters at the Presidio, preceding the
