

California Historical Society
for reference use only

PRIVATE

- 2 -

May 24, 1919

and in fact, everything pertaining to the paint line, within the next month or so. We also understand that there is little hope for lower prices for some months to come, if then.

We therefore thought it best to call your attention to this matter in the event of your desiring to anticipate your orders for dry colors somewhat, as we may have difficulty later on in obtaining prompt shipments.

This of course is only a suggestion on our part, as you know your requirements best and are no doubt fully advised regarding raw material market conditions, and trade conditions in general.

Very truly yours,

W. P. FULLER & CO.

W.P.F.