ATTEND WEDDING OF GRANDDAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Sayre crossed the bay last night for the marriage of their granddaughter, Miss Isabelle Sayre, to Ronald Barry. The wedding took place at 8:30 o'clock in the First Congregational Church in Oakland. Miss Katharine Sayre was her sister's maid of honor and Charles White of Alameda was best man.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Barry attended the University of California. The former belongs to Zeta Psi and the latter to Sigma Kappa. Mrs. Barry is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Barry of Oakland. Her grandparents lived in Alameda for a number of years before coming to Palo Alto.

D. A. R. CHAPTER TO MEET FRIDAY

Mrs. Carrie W. French will entertain Gaspar de Portola Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Friday afternoon at her home, 445 Forest avenue. Mrs. Bryant Preston will assist and Maj. Leon French will be the speaker. The meeting is called for 2 o'clock and the program for 3 o'clock.

PARIS (A)—French bridegrooms continue to wear evening dress to the altar despite the effort of certain social arbiters to attire them in morning coats. According to old French tradition the bridegroom wore on his wedding day full dress in blue with gold buttons, and a reflection of the custom is seen in the white tie and black tails which continue to appear at smart Parisian weddings today.

PARIS (A)—American shoes are making as big a "hit" with chic Parisians as American stockings. Shoes made by a widely known American designer shown here with a French dressmaker's collection always call forth the inquiry "Where can we find those shoes?"

addition to those already appointed, so that they may report the program.

Miss Hilda Isles, niece of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, will attend with her Seeing Eye dog and will give a short talk on how these animals are trained to lead the blind. Other talks are to be given by Dean Charles S. Morris of San Mateo Junior High School, Miss Fanny Jewett Abbott, San Mateo county superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Richard Simonds of San Francisco.

Mrs. Franklin P. Nutting will lead discussion of the jury panel type.

COUPLE ON HONEYMOON AFTER LOS GATOS WEDDING

Miss Ailda Popp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Popp of Los Gatos, who has been employed in Palo Alto for the past three years, was married Sunday to Charles Morgan Burgess, son of Mrs. Barney Barnheisel of Oakland.

The wedding took place in the garden of the home of the bride's parents. Following a reception Mr. and Mrs. Burgess departed for a honeymoon before taking up their residence in Oakland, where the husband is in business.

REBEKAH ART CLUB TO EXHIBIT WORK

The arts and crafts club of Palo Alto Rebekah Lodge will meet tomorrow night at 7:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. E. Rice, 877 Channing avenue. All of the work so far completed for the Carnival of Nations which the lodge is to hold November 9 and 10 will be on display.

STANFORD GRADUATE TO WED SAN JOSE GIRL

The betrothal of Miss Josephine Coopers to J. Rainey Hancock, both of San Jose, has been announced.

Miss Coopers, the only daughter of Mrs. Margaret Coopers and Joseph B. Coopers, is a graduate of Notre Dame High School and San Jose State College, and a member of Omega Nu and Sigma Societies.

Mr. Hancock, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Hancock and a brother of Mrs. Olinar Berry of Palo Alto, is a Stanford law graduate with the class of 1930. He maintains his law office in San Jose.

No date has been set for the wedding.
