Nalplex—the wonderful one coat acrylic wall paint—and your "Dutch Boy" hand-puppet.
A $1.59 value—your free share of fun for the whole family—just like painting with Nalplex.

If there ever was a time to plan a spruce-up operation at your house . . . this is it! Because right now we have a wonderful gift for you. It's the cutest little hand-puppet you ever saw — the "Dutch Boy" himself — and he's yours free with a gallon of the easiest wall paint you ever heard of. Of course, we mean "Dutch Boy" Nalplex — the famous acrylic wall paint that covers in one coat. Brush and roller marks are invisible . . . so are touch-ups . . . and there's no painty odor. Nalplex dries fast — in just two hours — with a tough, velvet-flat finish that's totally washable. Clean-up is a simple job for soap and water, too! Honest, painting will never be easier. So come on in . . . pick yourself one of the exciting new Nalplex colors. And get your free "Dutch Boy" hand-puppet — our reminder that whatever you paint and whenever you paint it, "Dutch Boy" does it best! Supply is limited.
