Gonzales Plays Falkenburg Today

OJAI, Calif, April 30 (AP) —
There will be a repeat performance today by the 1948 finalists in the top matches of the 30th annual Ojai Valley Tennis Tournament.

National Champion Dick (Panch) Gonzales will meet the defending Ojai and Wimbledon champion, Bob Falkenburg, for the men's invitational singles title.

Louise Brough, the Ojai titleholder, once again will meet Beverly Baker, UCLA coed, for the women's crown.

The champs captured 20 points, San Francisco 17, McNeese, Lake Charles, La, 11, Multi College of Pasadena, 5, Bakersfield, Cal, 3, and Allen Academy of Texas 3. Ed Sanders of Compton TKO'd Frank Sueuga, San Francisco, in the third round to win the heavy-weight title.

BAY AREA CHEER

Seals Win Fifth Straight; Oaks "Find" Distance Man

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30 (UP) — San Francisco and Oakland fans may not be entirely satisfied with the performances of the Seals and Oaks after last year's battle for the Pacific Coast League crown, but at least they had something to cheer today.

The Oaks discovered at least one pitcher who could go the distance, and the Seals had cut the Los Angeles Angels down to their own second-division size.

Oakland's Frank Nelson hung up his fourth complete game (out of five by the whole Acorn throwing staff) in beating the Hollywood Stars 6-1 on a five-hitter. The feat made a string of 33 innings in which the 31-year-old righthander has given up only two runs.

And San Francisco slapped Los Angeles 10-7 for a clean sweep of their four-game series, the first series sweep in the league this season.

San Diego hop-scotched over Hollywood to the top of the league, by waxing Portland 9-3 and Sacramento moved into a second-place tie with a 5-3 win over Seattle.

The slugfest 10-7 Johnny Ostrowski, Reno Chesno and Dino Restelli hit homers. The Padres pounded out 13 hits, (Manager Kenny Myers), Umpires Art Jacobs and Elmer Wheeler. Reno-Silversox (Manager Lilio Marcucci) at Salinas Colts (Manager Bruce-Ogrodowski), Umpires Gil Stratton and Jim Drolette. The league's player limit is 22 for the first 30 days, 17 thereafter. The season closes September 1.

basketball coach at Monterey College Tidwell, with Monterey High School at present, led his Toreador cagers to the CCAL A Division title recently. . . . The outlook for finding streams loaded with trout is better in the Monterey Division of Los Padres National Forest than any other place in this locale, Ranger Branagh said. Trout season opens May 1 (tomorrow) and does not close until Oct 31.

SATURDAY — Track athletes from the 10 CCAL schools took their qualifying "slips" to Hollister today to compete in the league finals. The meet was to start at 2 p m Monterey and Carmel each had 10 men in the competition; Pacific Grove had six. . . . Watsonville was favored to win the action, with Carmel rated the best chance of upsetting the dope. . . . Dottie Traung lost to Mrs Ruth McCullah, 1-up, in play of the California Women's Amateur Championship. . . . Trout season opens tomorrow.

And another Sports week bites the dust . . .
