Chinese Talks At San Carlos

(Times County News Service)
SAN CARLOS, April 22.—Mrs.
Bernard Hough who, with her husband, takes care of 1100 boys in Fouchow college in China, where she is a nurse, dietitian and overseer, addressed members of the Chinese community at San Carlos last week.

Mrs. Hough was born at Sharp Park. Her father, John Hough, was a pioneer settler in the area. She was graduated from a high school in San Carlos and then attended school in Fouchow, China, where she has been for the past several years.

After working in YWCA work in Shanghai she taught in Washington school until she married Bernard Hough, who graduated his B. S. from Yenching university and his M. A. from the state university of Washington. The young married couple studied at Columbia Teachers college until leaving for China in 1937 to take charge of Fouchow college.

Circle Two members were hostesses at the luncheon, with Merida Hough as chairman.
