Mrs. Dorothea Sibley, 1130 Bryant street, recently learned of the promotion of her son-in-law, Sanford H. Webster, 25, of Camp Wolters, Texas, to the rank of major.

Major Webster is the husband of the former Mary McKim Sibley, and the brother-in-law of Amy T. Sibley, now an ensign in the WAVES, stationed in San Francisco.

Simultaneous with his promotion, Major Webster was transferred to the battalion commanders' and staff officers' infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga., for a course of training.

He is the son of Mrs. S. H. Webster of Providence, R.I., and a graduate of the West Point Military Academy with the class of 1940.

Amy Sibley, a graduate of Palo Alto High School, entered the WAVES in February, 1942.

Recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the marine corps, and wearing the gold wings of a pilot to designate his rank and station, Ross Howard Hughes, 854 Mayfield avenue, has

A B C's of Home Canning

It's just off the press... this Wartime Edition of our canning and food preservation booklet! It is a completely revised edition of our popular canning booklet which we offered last year. Much material has been added and it is newer in every way... definitely designed for wartime needs and restrictions.

This complete booklet on food preservation is the climax of much research, much testing and retesting in the kitchens of the Homemakers' Bureau. In it, you'll find the very latest information and directions on canning, freezing, dehydrating, pickling, jam and jelly making. There are many delicious prize recipes, too, which will add much enjoyment to your winter months. In fact
