Samantha –

David and I spoke a couple of times earlier this week about the possibility of introducing ourselves. He said he might have some availability the earlier part of next week in the afternoon.

I know we'd welcome the chance to sit down as your schedule permits to brief you on some of the more pressing issues as American Farm Bureau sees them. If there is a time and day next week that work for you and David, if you could let me know I will coordinate things on my end so the appropriate people can attend.

Thanks for your time. I look forward to getting together at your convenience.

Paul
