

ROUTE TO:

1.
2.
3. PURCHASING DEPT.

PURCHASE
REQUISITION

No 114436

DATE

7-25-51

SUGGESTED VENDORS:

Mason - McLean

Pittsburgh, Pa.

|                                        |                        |                                 |
|----------------------------------------|------------------------|---------------------------------|
| REQUISITIONED BYTurbine Engr - EDC | S. O. OR7328       | CHARGE ACCOUNT NO.              |
| APPROVED BY                            | M. O. NO.              | DELIVER TOstore for SO 7328 |
| ROUTING                                | W. O. NO.              | DATE MATERIAL REQUIRED          |
|                                        | RECORD NO.E-192329 |                                 |

| ITEM NO. | QUANTITY | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | CAT. OR W.O. NO. | PRICE (PUR. DEPT. USE ONLY) |
|----------|----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1        | one (1)  | M & N #519. Auxiliary Oil Pump Governor, size 1", cast steel body, stainless steel trim, for WSP 600 pump and 750' FTT, with flanged oil connection to diaphragm, similar to Elliott Co. Eng. X-614245 with 3/8" orifice. Body flanged, faced and drilled for 600 # ASA standard. To be used for the automatic starting & stopping of an emergency lubricating oil pump and is to be suitable for starting the pump when the oil pressure on the diaphragm falls to approx. 10 psi and stopping the pump when the pressure rises to approx 12 psi. To be adjustable to a max. cut-off pressure of not less than 15 psi and to be able to withstand a max. pressure on the diaphragm of up to 25 psi. |                  |                             |
|          |          | Please mark (3) certified prints. Please also furnish (5) 8 1/2" x 11" photolithographed sections with parts list for instruction book purposes.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                  |                             |

APPROVED
FOR CONSTRUCTION
ELLIOTT COMPANY
JEANNETTE, PA.
BY R.N. Styles
DATE MAR 20 1952

APPROVED
FOR CONSTRUCTION
ELLIOTT COMPANY
JEANNETTE, PA.
BY R.N. Styles
DATE OCT 30 1951

FORM 162A

PURCHASING DEPARTMENT USE ONLY: PRICES SHOWN ARE F. O. B.

CONFIDENTIAL

SC-ETM-1816

EL-MARATHON-ROBINSON 08284