lines can match that record. So NATS personnel hope that their organization will be kept as intact as possible in the NATS-ATC merger which is now being planned in a series of conferences in Washington.
The two lines actually were merged on paper March 1, but so far the operational end of NATS' crack trans-Pacific routes has not been touched.

ONE-COST COVERAGE

The Herald is the Peninsula's most effective and most economical advertising medium because it is welcomed and read daily by more than 30,000 persons in all sections of the Peninsula.

The Herald provides one-cost coverage of this entire trading area, at a rate so low that a half-page advertisement costs only a fraction of a cent per family reached.
