Today I met with Scott Cameron at the Department of the Interior, and an item of discussion raised by Mr. Cameron was the California WaterFix. Based on Mr. Cameron's comments concerning his communications with the State administration, I believe it would be very helpful if we had a conference call with Mr. Cameron to ensure we have a common understanding of the issues and are moving toward a successful resolution of those issues. I am informed that representatives of the State administration will be in DC next week, and it is my view that our discussion should precede their visit to DC.

I know we will be talking at 3:00 p.m. PST tomorrow. If he is available, I would like to ask Mr. Cameron to join that discussion. Please let me know your thoughts.

Tom
