

Talks, I Purdue indicating that my attitude on this matter. I am not misrepresenting either by the writer who is quoted or by the members of the Swiss. Local Committee or by a combination of slight deviations from the fact on the fact of both, whereby my critique as to the reviewed action, than my opinion, has been translated into a degree of animosity toward the one of this.

I further state that I would take no action without further notice, but that I might write to the Swiss group, as alternative mail them in October, if necessary.
