[illegible] representatives meet with delegates from Brazil and Uruguay in Buenos Aires to organize a system for the joint defense of this area of the South Atlantic. She has since disclosed that Paraguay also was invited.

Brazil announced yesterday that she would attend. Uruguay had accepted earlier.

The plan has encountered a chilly reception elsewhere in South America. Some diplomats [illegible] opinion that existing hemisphere defense pacts are adequate. U. S. State Department officials have said they know nothing about the Argentine project.

Argentine officials have not disclosed any details of the defense plan. They propose to present [illegible] cept that its purpose would be to coordinate the activities of member nations.

Critics of Provisional President Pedro Aramburu have suggested that its chief purpose is to get an aircraft carrier from the United States for the Argentine navy, which is one of Aramburu's strongest supporters.

Two Arraigned on Kidnap-Rape Charges

SALINAS—Two Watsonville laborers charged with the kidnaping and forcible rape of an 18-year-old Pajaro girl Aug. 26 were arraigned in Superior Court here Thursday. Ordered by Superior Judge Anthony Brazil to enter pleas Sept. 20 were Freddie R. Lopez and Jimmy D. Ramirez, both 19.

Arraignment of a third youth on the same charges was continued until Sept. 20. He is Elias D. Ramirez, also 19.

[illegible] the nation has a part-time presidency" with power passing to the hands of Nixon and a "big business" cabinet.

"These are stern facts," he said. "To ignore them is perilous. They are the reasons America's human needs go today unmet. Nor will they be met so long as the President is not master in his own house."

Opens Campaign

Stevenson "formally" opened his campaign in a convention-like atmosphere, with his supporters waving placards and marching in the aisles at a $50-a-plate fund-raising buffet in Harrisburg's huge Farm Show Arena.

James A. Finnegan, Stevenson's campaign manager, said at [illegible] the affair was expected to gross some $425,000. Television and radio costs have been estimated at more than $[illegible].

Obviously referring to President Eisenhower's health, Stevenson said:

"Everyone shares in sympathy for the circumstances which have created a part-time presidency.

"But we cannot understand — and we will not accept — turning the government over to men who work full-time for the wrong people and for a limited group of people.

Get Worse

"And the plain truth is that this situation would get worse, not better, in a continuation of this administration, because what influence the President has with his party in Congress has depended on his running again.

"But from here on the future of Republican leaders will depend not on Eisenhower, but the Republican heir apparent, Mr. Nixon."

Stevenson's arena audience booed Nixon's name lustily.

"And the vice president," said [illegible]

"Then, partly by choice, partly by necessity—we regret President Eisenhower turned over to these men of limited interests and experience still more of the powers of government," he said.

"Where business interests are involved, cutting taxes for the well-to-do, turning our natural [illegible] schools and hospitals, to clear slums, even to distribute the Salk vaccine — there no one leads."

While the audience booed Nixon's name, it cheered at every mention of Joe Smith, the Republican National Convention's mythical candidate against him.

Family Plans Horseback Trip Around the World

PRYOR, Okla. (AP)—Around the world on horseback. Sounds impossible? Crazy? Maybe, but not to three members of a Pryor, Okla., family who plan just such a trip starting Thursday.

The venturesome trio are Jesse Moore, 41, and two of his children, 21-year-old Lloyd and 15-year-old Dorothy. With two pack horses and their own mounts and traveling light, they will start for Mexico on a trek they figure will keep them away from home at least four years.

To Moore, who owns a 210-acre *farm just north of here in north-*eastern Oklahoma, the trip is neither impossible nor crazy. He has his reasons for the unusual journey.

"I have wanted to do this for years," he explained. "It's one of those things you keep putting off and finally I decided to pick a date and go. I want to meet peo*ple and study their customs and* the way they live.

"It's sort of a private good will tour."

What does Mrs. Moore, who will stay at home, think of the idea?

"I saw Jesse almost skinned to death by a bear in Alaska. But the old boy came through, and he will this time."

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Clarence Clifford Wilson was $1,500 richer today—because of a 10-cent fried pie he didn't steal.
