National Historic Preservation Act Invitation to Attend Brown Bag Lunch and Conference Call
CLARK HILL July 25, 2017 BROWN BAG LUNCH ON NATIONAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION ACT IMPLEMENTATION AND SECTION 106 REVIEW

Clark Hill invites you to a brown bag lunch discussion on the National Historic Preservation Act ("NHPA") and Section 106 review, which will explore opportunities to address NHPA implementation concerns through administrative and legislative actions. Two recent developments have made these issues particularly topical: a July 18 Congressional oversight hearing at which concerns were raised about use of the Act to delay or prevent development and a proposal to list on the National Register of Historic Places, 109,000 acres (170 square miles) of state and private land, over the objection of private landowners. These and other implementation issues will be discussed. A link to these proceedings is available at <https://naturalresources.house.gov/oversightandinvestigations>
<http://dnr.alaska.gov/parks/oha/commentsubmit>.

The session will include comments from invited federal agencies, including the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Department of Transportation, Department of Agriculture and the Department of the Interior. Insights from the hearings and potential next steps that could be taken both administratively and legislatively will also be discussed. Karen Bennett will moderate the panel. The meeting is off the record, by invitation, and not open to the press.

The brown bag will be held on Tuesday, July 25, 2017, from 12 1:30pm ET at the offices of Clark Hill PLC, 1001 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., 13th floor South. Space is limited. RSVP by July 24 to Karen Bennett, (202) 572 8676 or kbennett@clarkhill.com. Conference call information is available for out of town guests. Please let us know if you will attend in person or by teleconference. Sandwiches, soft drinks and coffee will be provided.
