On background: This is a report from the Environmental Integrity Project that is actually run by the Obama head of enforcement – trying to draw attention to his new project.

--The NYT never asked Ed Chu, the head of R7 for comment or explanation on the memo he cites

--The main memo cited was written by a career staffer, under no direction from political leadership (NYT claims she is a top deputy for Pruitt – she was neither a top deputy, nor was she directed to do this by political leadership).

Jahan

Christopher White, DCNF energy reporter. We've spoken before.

I'm working on something showing Lipton's Sunday piece didn't mention Obama's wallowing out EPA's enforcement arm.

I also got your follow up email to Bastasch from last week.

It included quotes from Henry Barnet and Patrick Traylor.

Traylor's quote mentions the "EIP's report" -- curious which report he is alluding to. Is it included in the factsheet you included regarding Lipton's article?
