

WALL STREET JOURNAL
March 30, 1936

Monsanto Chemical Salaries Made Public by SEC

WASHINGTON — Monsanto Chemical Co. paid its president, Edgar M. Queeny, total remuneration of $53,618 in 1934, consisting of $24,750 salary and $28,868 bonus, according to information made available to the public by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The data on Monsanto had been filed by the company in its permanent registration application with a request for confidential treatment. Following a hearing on the company's request, it was decided that the information was of sufficient importance to investors to merit public disclosure.

Other salaries and bonuses paid by the company in 1934, as well as other data made public by the SEC, follow:

Monsanto Chemical Co.

	1934
	Salary	Bonus
Gaston Dubois, vice president.....	$18,000	$27,425
J. W. Livingston, vice president.....	17,500	25,777
G. Lee Camp, vice president.....	17,500	27,481
Lloyd F. Nickell, assistant vice pres..	27,500	18,555
Charles Belknap, officer of subsidiary.	24,750	8,733
William M. Rand, officer of subsidiary	18,900	8,296

DSW 331298