

Lead Industries Association, Inc.

292 Madison Avenue • New York, N.Y. 10017 • Telephone: (212) 679-6020

June 27, 1973.

SUBJECT: AVAILABILITY OF ANNUAL MEETING
PROGRAM TRANSCRIPT

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE LEAD INDUSTRIES ASSOCIATION, INC.:

A complete transcript of the speeches given at the recent LIA/ZI Annual Meeting has been prepared. Those who requested copies of the speeches have already received them.

On a chance that there are some who might have been missed, however, I take this opportunity to bring to your attention the availability of copies of these speeches.

Sincerely,

Jerome F. Smith
Secretary & General Manager

JFS:lm

P.S. Attached is a list of the speeches presented at our recent Annual Meeting.

SPEECHES PRESENTED AT LIA ANNUAL MEETINGDetroit, MichiganApril 5-7, 1973

"The Energy Problem"	-	by M. J. Young Elison Electric Institute
"Some Perspectives on the Energy Problem"	-	by Nicolai Timanov, Jr. U.S. Dept. of the Interior
"The Energy Crisis in the U.S."	-	by Gerard C. Gambe Fords, Bacon & Davis, Inc.
"Lead in the Automobile Industry Batteries"	-	by J. A. Peterson Prestolite Battery Div.
"Status of Lead in Gasoline"	-	by H. E. Hesselberg Ethyl Corporation
"Environmental Considerations"	-	by P. E. Toth Ford Motor Company
"Minerals Policy and World Supply Situation for Lead and Zinc Up to 1980"	-	by R. A. Kilmarx Center for Strategic and International Studies
"Implications of OSHA Regulations On the Lead and Zinc Industry"	-	by Vernon E. Rose U.S. Dept. of Labor OSHA
"Today's Research for Tomorrow's Markets"	-	by S. P. Radtke International Lead Zinc Research Organization, Inc.
"Trends in Automotive Design 1975-1980"	-	by D. P. Kopka Ford Motor Company
"The Outlook for the Continued Use of Zinc in the Major Appliance Industry"	-	by Ralph I. Hauser Westinghouse Electric Corporation