Loren, thank you for the introduction, I really appreciate it.

Dan, it is a pleasure to meet over email and congratulations on your appointment. Ben, it is nice to reconnect!

I would like to request an opportunity to bring Boeing's Washington based leadership in for an introductory meeting, provide a briefing on the implementation of our Safety & Quality Plan, and also share some of the companies areas of focus that may be in front of your office moving forward. Included in a meeting would be:

- Jeff Shockey, Executive Vice President of Government Operations, Global Public Policy & Corporate Strategy;
- Tom Culligan, Vice President of Aerospace Safety & Commercial Aviation, Government Operations; and
- Ted Austell, Vice President for International Commercial Aviation, Government Operations.

Would a time early next week be convenient for an introductory meeting?

Thank you all, we are looking forward to working together.

Lauren

Loren,

Thank you for the offer to facilitate an introduction to Mr. Edwards, I really appreciate it.

We have a lot of new leadership here at Boeing, including Jeff Shockey, Executive Vice President of Government Operations, Global Public Policy & Corporate Strategy and Tom Culligan, Vice President of Aerospace Safety & Commercial Aviation, Government Operations. We would welcome the opportunity to come by for an introductory conversation with Mr. Edwards, or happy to host him here at our Boeing Arlington office.

Thank you again, hope to catch up soon!

Lauren
