

hman Calves To Be Shown h Others at Monterey Fair

EREY, Sept. 9.—Are Brahe better than shorthorns, or Aberdeen-Angus? a question that will be by the public at the Mon- unity Fair at Monterey, o 28, according to Loring sistant manager in charge ek. said Capt. W. J. Chitarin, uperintendent of Califor- e Farms in the Cachagua Monterey County, is en- umber of Brahman cattle ir. pen will be a pure-bred ull, a cow, and a six- d heifer calf. In another comparative purposes, will ross-bred bull calves (born) from pure-bred Brahman id pure-bred Shorthorn pure-bred Shorthorn bull n July 16); and a pure- reford bull calf (born Jan.

Although different ages, all six calves weigh approximately the same. They will come directly off the range and have not received any special treatment or food in their development. Other Brahman cattle have already been entered by William Jeffery of Salinas, W. R. Manning of Eagle Pass, Texas, and Pettit Land and Cattle Co. of King City. Also considering entries are J. and A. Anderson of Chualar and Bruce Church of Salinas. Brahman cattle are relatively new in this area, and it is the hope of the Fair management to make this department of the Fair an interesting one.

tions on formation of a recreation district. She explained such a district could be set up in the fashion of an assessment district by residents filing petitions with the Board of Supervisors, and assessments being levied against them to support the district.
