Uncollected Employee Tax on Tips $

TO EMPLOYER

1. Prepare this form for each employee (a) from whom income tax has been withheld during the year, (b) whose wages (including tips reported for withholding purposes) exceed the amount of the exemption for any payroll period (even though no income tax was withheld), and (c) for whom you are required to withhold income tax under the "other compensation" plus wages, if any, of $400 or more, if paid to an employee in the year. Copy A of Form 941 should be furnished to the Internal Revenue Service for each employee for whom you are required to withhold income tax.
2. Fill in—(a) Your identification number, name, and address.
(b) The amount of income tax deducted and withheld. If no amount was deducted and withheld enter "None" or "0."
(c) Total wages paid and tips reported before any payroll deductions. Payments of "sick pay" and non-cash remuneration are considered wages. If an employer keeps the records described in Circular "F" (F.I.C.A. Form 941, 1969), any amount of sick pay shown in the space should be identified by the words "Excludable sick pay."
(d) Other compensation. This block should include all other compensation (amounts includable in gross income but not subject to income tax withholding) paid to an employee.
(e) Total amount of F.I.C.A. employee tax (not the employer tax) deducted and withheld, if any (but if there was an adjustment in 1969 to correct the tax for a prior year enter the amount withheld in 1969 increased by the adjustment). If F.I.C.A. employee tax was paid or tips reported but no employer tax was deducted, enter "None" or "0."
(f) Total wages paid and tips reported (before payroll deductions) subject to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. Non-cash remuneration is considered wages. If not subject to F.I.C.A., enter "None" or "0." No F.I.C.A. wage entry need be made if (1) F.I.C.A. wages exactly equal the total wages for income tax withholding purposes, or (2) F.I.C.A. wages exceed $7,500 and the total wages for income tax withholding purposes exceed $7,800.
(g) Uncollected employee tax on tips. See Circular E for instructions.
(h) The employee's social security number, name, and address.
(i) State and local government employers who have been assigned an identification number with the prefix 49 should also show this number.
3. Give copies B and C to the employee (a) on or before January 31 following the calendar year if the employee is in your employ at the close of such year, or (b) within 30 days after the last payment of wages, if his employment terminated during the year.
4. Forward Copy A to the Internal Revenue Service. For further information see Form 941 and Circular E. Form 941, 1969.
5. One-eighth of this amount was withheld to finance the cost of Hospital Insurance benefits. The remainder is for old-age, survivors, and disability insurance.
6. Includes tips reported by employee.

EMPLOYER: This copy is provided for your convenience in keeping your withholding records.

TO EMPLOYER:

1. Prepare this form for each employee (a) from whom income tax has been withheld during the year or (b) whose wages, for purposes of income tax withholding, exceeded the amount of one withholding exemption for any payroll period (even though no income tax was withheld).
2. Fill in—(a) Your identification number, name, and address.
(b) The amount of income tax withheld and withheld if no income tax was withheld.
(c) Total wages paid and the reported before any payroll deduction. Payments of "sick pay" and non-cash remuneration are considered wages. If an employer keeps the records described in (b), it should enter the amount of wages paid in 1966. Any amount of sick pay shown in the space should be identified by the words "excludable sick pay."
(d) Other compensation. This block should include salaries, wages, commissions, fees, and any other compensation for services rendered by the employee.
(e) Total amount of F.I.C.A. employee tax (see the employer's) deducted and withheld, if any (but if there was an adjustment in 1966 to correct the tax for a prior year enter the amount withheld in 1966 increased by the adjustment for an over-

- collection or decreased by the adjustment for an under-collection). If F.I.C.A. wages were paid but no employee tax was deducted, enter "None" or "0."
- (f) Total wages paid and tips reported (before payroll deduction) for the year. Enter the amount of non-cash remuneration in considered wages. If not subject to F.I.C.A., enter "None" or "0." No F.I.C.A. wage entry need be made if (1) F.I.C.A. wages exactly equal the total wages for Federal income tax withholding purposes, or (2) F.I.C.A. wages are $5,000 and the total wages for Federal income tax withholding purposes exceed $5,000.
- (g) The employee's social security number, name, and address.
- (h) State and local government employers which have been assigned an identification number with the prefix 69 should also show this number.
3. Give copies B and C to the employee (a) on or before January 31 of the year following the year in which the employee was employed at the close of each year, or (b) within 30 days after the close of each year, if his employment is terminated before the close of such year.
4. Forward copy A to the District Director of Internal Revenue in accordance with the instructions printed on Form 941.
