He added that "we are determined that Russia shall not impress her totalitarian ideology upon other nations by force of arms or political duress and intrigue." And said that "expanding communism is a threat to human freedom everywhere; the time to stop it is now."

CHILD KILLED IN TRUCK-CYCLE CRASH

Marshall Gives Mrs. F.D.R. Key UN Assignment

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Sept. 24 (U.P.)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall today appointed the widow of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt to play the leading role in the United Nations debate with Russia over alleged U. S. "war mongering."

Marshall delegated "principal responsibility" to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Ambassador Warren R. Austin for presenting the U. S. case against Soviet delegate Andrei V. Vishinsky's charge that the United States is fomenting a third world war.

Mrs. Roosevelt already had acquired quite a reputation in UN circles for her previous to-and-fro debates with Vishinsky on questions involving human rights and displaced persons.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt wrote Sumner Welles, then undersecretary of state, in 1939 interceding in behalf of Hanns Eisler, self-admitted former Communist who wanted to enter the United States, a House committee disclosed today.

The letter was read at hearings by the House Committee on Un-American Activities and was identified by Welles who was in the witness chair.

It was signed "Eleanor Roosevelt" and was written on White House stationery, dated Jan. 11, 1939.

Robert E. Stripling, committee investigator, produced the letter and read it to the committee.

The committee is investigating circumstances under which Eisler, now a Hollywood song writer and a native of Germany was allowed to remain in the United States.

The letter urged Welles to study the facts in the application of Eisler and his wife for admission to the United States for permanent residence and "bring it out in the open and let the Eislers defend themselves."

Tropical Storm Hits Georgia

CHARLESTON, S.C., Sept. 24 (U.P.)—Driving rains and gusty winds swept South Carolina today as a tropical storm which had crossed Florida and Georgia dropped in intensity and was no longer severe.

At 10 a.m., the Weather Bureau ordered all storm warnings south of Brunswick, Georgia. Small craft warnings still flew from Brunswick north to Cape Hatteras.

At mid-morning the slackening winds of the disturbance were centered 50 miles northwest of Charleston but its force had been spent. It was still moving north-northeastward toward the Atlantic Coast.

The storm swept through Savannah, Georgia, about 5 a.m., buffeting the city with 40 mile an hour winds but causing no damage or injuries. Several streets were flooded and Buddy Inglesby who happened to have his motorboat at home was doing a thriving business ferrying residents of low areas to work.
