sure in both cases changes needed to be made.
Q Do you know how many times it needed to come back for either paper?
A I would be surprised if either of them came back after the revision was submitted. I'd be surprised.
Q Okay. Is it fair to say you just don't recall?
A I'd say I'm 90 percent sure that they were taken with the revision.
Q That's sure enough. Let's move on. I saw on the ChemRisk website the other day there are a number of papers that you refer to as being submitted for publication, tentatively approved for publication but have not been published yet?
A Mm-hmm.
Q Are you familiar with those papers?
A It depends. You'd have to show me which ones you mean.
Q I can pull it up.
A Are they off my CV?
Q I don't know if they are on your CV or not.
A That's the only reason I can't answer the question. Let's take a look.
Q Okay. In 2005 on the website, in review,
