STARTLING DEATH RECORD.

FLORA (Ind.) April 22.—A startling death record is reported in the families of Horner Selms and John Mc-Closkey, two prominent families near the city. In the last twenty-two months twenty-two deaths have occurred in these families, an average of one a month for nearly two years. The Selms and McCloskeys are closely related, and the diseases which carried them off were smallpox, typhoid fever and heart failure.

LAUGHED HERSELF TO DEATH.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) April 22.—Miss Catherine Maude Rice, a pretty girl, laughed herself to death. She was visiting some friends when one of them told a funny story. The physicians in charge said lesion of the brain was produced by her laughter.

"The Book of the Presidents"

By Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor, twenty years Member of Congress. Pronounced the most sumptuous and magnificently beautiful book ever issued in the United States. Contains twenty-seven large full-page photographic portraits, reproduced from the best paintings in the White House, the Congressional Library, the Capitol building and the Corcoran Art Gallery of Washington.

Contains Department of Autograph Letters, showing an autograph letter of each President of the United States and Department of Ar-morial Bearings and Genealogical Notes. These two features have never before appeared in any book ever issued.

Both President McKinley and President Roosevelt posed specially in the White House for their portraits to be used only and exclusively in this work. This is the greatest honor ever conferred on any publication ever issued in this country. This work reflects credit

1. It costs less to do a job of painting with it for it covers most surface and saves the painters'
