

the commission, or as to such rule or rules therein as may be remanded by the court.

The purpose of any such remanding order shall be for the further consideration of the subject matter of the particular decision, rule or rules remanded.

No new or additional evidence may be introduced in the court in such proceeding but the cause shall be heard on the record of the industrial commission as certified by it. The court shall review all questions of law and fact presented by such record, and shall review questions of fact in the same manner as questions of fact are reviewed by the court on certiorari proceedings under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

The court first acquiring jurisdiction by virtue of the filing of a praecipe for writ of certiorari seeking to review any decision, rule or rules of the industrial commission, shall have and retain jurisdiction of such review and of all other reviews from the same decision, rule or rules until such review is disposed of in said court.

Any person who subsequently, and within the time herein provided, has filed praecipe for writ of certiorari, may intervene in said original cause in whatever county it may be pending by making a proper showing.

The industrial commission, in making return to any writ of certiorari where praecipe is filed subsequent to the first praecipe involving the same subject matter, shall file as its return, a statement that the record has theretofore been filed, or is about to be filed, in response to the first praecipe theretofore filed.

At the time of making such subsequent return, the industrial commission shall mail to the attorneys whose names appear on the said writ as attorneys for the petitioner therein, a true copy of the said return filed with the said court, which return shall state the county in which the first praecipe has been filed, the title and number of the case, and the return date of the said first writ of certiorari. Any party filing such subsequent praecipe for writ of certiorari may intervene in the said original proceeding or shall be foreclosed by the decision thereon.

Such intervenor shall be a party to the said proceeding to the same extent as the party who had filed the first praecipe, and may raise any additional question with respect to the subject matter by filing his specific objections in the said court within such time as the court may direct.

(j) Appeals from all final orders and judgments entered by the said court in review of the decision, rule or rules of the industrial commission, may be taken directly to the Supreme Court by either party to the action within forty-five (45) days after the entry of the order of the said court.
