

To: Rich Lowry[lowryny@gmail.com]
Cc: Alexandra Zimmern[alexandra@nrinstitute.org]; Hupp, Millan[hupp.millan@epa.gov]
From: Ford, Hayley
Sent: Wed 10/11/2017 5:44:54 PM
Subject: RE: Invite

Hi Rich,

We appreciate your invitation below. Unfortunately, the Administrator needs to be in DC this day and must regretfully decline this reception. We hope that the event is a success and thank you for thinking of us!

Hayley Ford

Deputy White House Liaison

Office of the Administrator

Environmental Protection Agency

Room: 3309C William Jefferson Clinton North

ford.hayley@epa.gov

Phone: 202-564-2022

Cell: 202-306-1296

From: Graham, Amy
Sent: Thursday, October 5, 2017 4:53 PM
To: Rich Lowry <lowryny@gmail.com>
Cc: Alexandra Zimmern <alexandra@nrinstitute.org>; Ford, Hayley <ford.hayley@epa.gov>; Hupp, Millan <hupp.millan@epa.gov>
Subject: Re: Invite

Hi Rich - Thank you for the invitation. I am looping in the Administrator's scheduling team here.

Thanks,

Amy

Sent from my iPhone

On Oct 5, 2017, at 12:50 PM, Rich Lowry <lowryny@gmail.com> wrote:

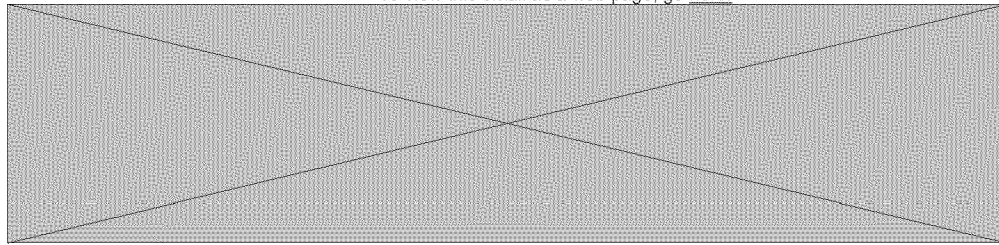

Dear Amy,

I know Scott's schedule is very difficult, but we'd love to see him as our guest at our gala in NYC on October 25th. Hope all is well.

Best,

Rich

To view this email as a web page, go here.

THE WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY JR. PRIZE DINNER

NEW YORK CITY • GOTHAM HALL

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25

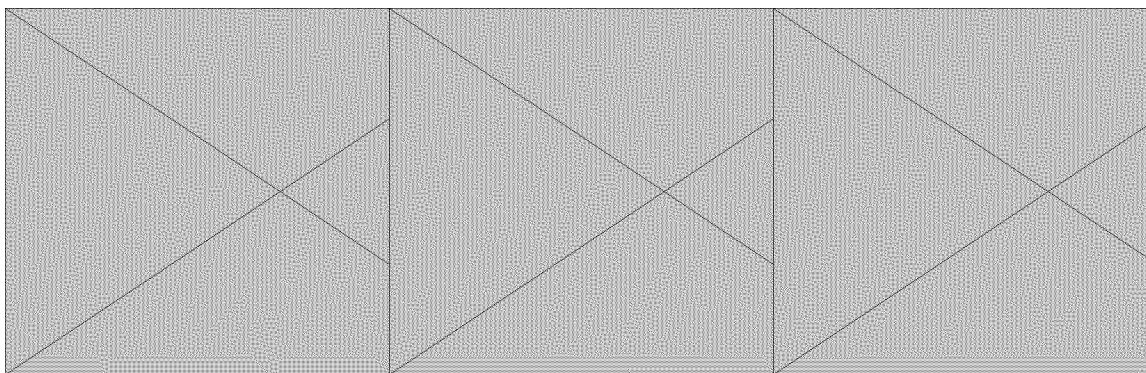

Dear Friend,

As a conservative, I place tremendous value on the National Review mission, which has guided the movement since Bill Buckley founded the magazine in 1955. I am pleased to serve as a trustee of National Review Institute, which is hosting its fourth annual Buckley Prize Dinner this fall honoring Bruce and Suzie Kovner and Tom Wolfe, meaningful leaders of the conservative movement. All funds raised go to support NRI, and I enthusiastically encourage you to join us for this remarkable evening.

Sincerely,

Ambassador John Bolton

Trustee, National Review Institute

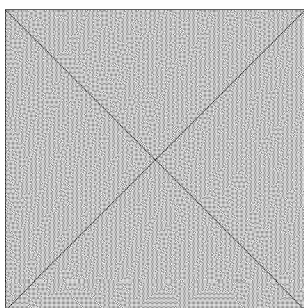

Please join us on Wednesday, October 25 for NRI's fourth annual William F. Buckley Jr. Prize Dinner at Gotham Hall in New York City honoring our close friends, Tom Wolfe and Bruce and Suzie Kovner.

The annual William F. Buckley Jr. Prize Dinner brings together an audience of conservative leaders, philanthropists, and friends of National Review Institute from around the country to celebrate the lasting legacy of William F. Buckley Jr and our esteemed honorees. The William F. Buckley Jr. Prize was created to honor those who advance the principles Buckley championed during his lifetime and foster the conservative movement that he helped launch.

To honor WFB's achievement and inspire others, National Review Institute's Board of Trustees created the William F. Buckley Jr. Prizes for Leadership in Political Thought and Leadership in Supporting Liberty. We hope you will join us this year in New York City.

THIS YEAR'S HONOREES

RECOGNIZING ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN THE ARTS & LETTERS

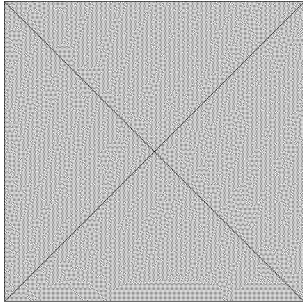

TOM WOLFE

Introduced by Christopher Buckley

The Prize for Leadership in Political Thought will be awarded to Tom Wolfe, recognizing his acclaimed writing and his influence on American culture over five decades. Bill Buckley had a cherished friendship with Mr. Wolfe, and admired him as a unique man of letters. In 1970, on one of several Firing Line episodes with Mr. Wolfe, WFB described his guest as "probably the most skillful writer in America . . .he can do more things with words than anyone else."

BRUCE AND SUZIE KOVNER

Introduced by Arthur Brooks

The Prize for Leadership in Supporting Liberty, which recognizes conservative philanthropy, will be awarded to Bruce and Suzie Kovner for their support and leadership of organizations that defend private enterprise, free markets and free trade, protect individual rights, and promote scholarly research that strengthens American democratic principles; for their support of education reform, particularly charter schools; and for their leadership of the major performing arts institutions of New York City. Bill Buckley loved free enterprise, classical liberalism, conservative policy reform, and the arts-especially music. Like Bill, Mr. Kovner plays the harpsichord. WFB also admired the kind of philanthropy in which the Kovners have engaged for many years.

SPECIAL PROGRAM FEATURES

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES BY STUDENTS FROM THE JULLIARD SCHOOL

A SALUTE TO RICHARD LOWRY'S 25 YEARS AT NATIONAL REVIEW

AND

JAMES ROSEN AS MASTER OF CEREMONIES

RESERVE YOUR SEAT TODAY

Space is very limited, so we encourage you to RSVP at your earliest convenience. In addition to table sponsorship opportunities, we are offering individual tickets to the dinner starting at $1,000. Purchasing a ticket or sponsorship will also grant you membership into our 1955 Society.

For all details and registration please visit our website: www.nrinstitute.org/wfbprize2017.

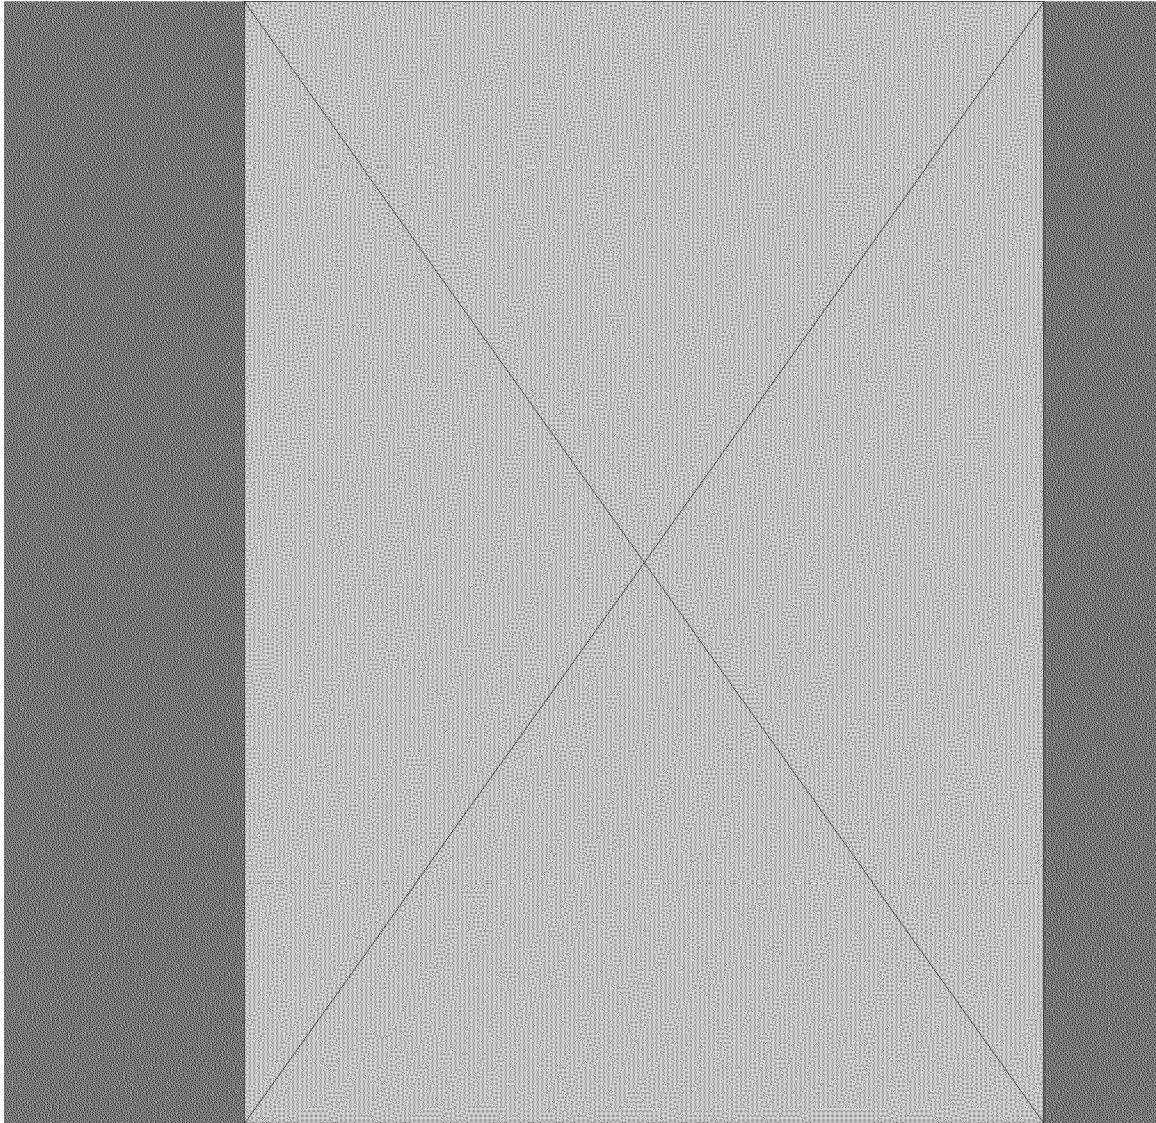

For out of town guests, NRI has secured rooms at The Knickerbocker, from where a shuttle to Gotham Hall will be provided. In addition, we have a few rooms at The Algonquin. Please make sure to reserve a spot at your earliest convenience.

All flights to and from NYC airports from 10/15-11/5 are entitled to NRI's 10% discount on Delta Airlines. When booking your travel, enter "NMQNP" in the meeting code on Delta's homepage: <https://www.delta.com>.

We hope you will join our friends and supporters from around the country in New York City this fall!

National Review Institute is a non-profit, 501(c)(3), journalistic think tank, established to advance the conservative principles William F. Buckley Jr. championed, and complement the mission of the National Review magazine by supporting and promoting NR's best talent. All contributions to it are deductible for income, gift, and estate tax purposes. EIN# 13-3649537

National Review Institute - www.nrinstitute.org - 215 Lexington Ave, 11th Floor - New York, NY 10016

*Preserving and promoting the legacy of William F.
Buckley Jr.*

This email was sent by: National Review Institute
215 Lexington Ave, Fl 11 New York, NY 10016 US
We respect your right to privacy - view our policy

Manage Subscriptions | Update Profile | Unsubscribe

.

.

.

.

.