RE: Sherwin-Williams vs.

REDACTED

Dear Tony:

On September 21, 1994, a hearing was scheduled in Augusta, Maine relative to settlement with the Travelers. You will recall that Travelers and have negotiated a settlement in the amount of $50,000.00. This is a full and final lump sum settlement of workers' compensation case.

I travelled to Augusta, Maine to attend the hearing with the hope that I would be able to negotiate a favorable settlement with whereby he would agree to pay $5,000.00 to Sherwin-Williams in satisfaction of the pending claim that Sherwin-Williams has filed against in the Skowhegan District Court. Unfortunately, did not attend the hearing. Hearing Officer Elizabeth Elwin was present and Sheilah McLaughlin, Esquire appeared on behalf of the Travelers. Kenneth Lexier, Esquire appeared on behalf of Sheilah McLaughlin, Esquire telephoned John Healy, the adjuster at the Travelers who is handling this case. True to his typical character, Jack is very concerned about your interests and he would like very much to co-operate with us as we negotiate with We are fortunate to have him as the adjuster. The fact that did not attend this hearing may have been a blessing in disguise. We have a little more time to negotiate with now that we are armed with knowledge of the $50,000.00 settlement.

I shall contact as soon as possible and apprise you of the results of those discussions.

Very truly yours,

Richard N. Hewes, Esquire
