Subject: How to understand Donald Trump

Scott,

Our current president is unlike any other who came before him.

The way he thinks and acts stems from his past experiences and successes as a businessman and celebrity, not as a politician. So it should come as no surprise that he doesn't act like a politician, and to be honest, he ruffles a lot of politicians' feathers — on both sides of the aisle — because they just don't understand him.

If we want to help President Trump move forward in promoting conservative policy, we must take time to understand the way he makes decisions, as well as his political agenda and how he deals with the forces that oppose him, such as the media and the establishment.

Newt Gingrich has written a book with some terrific insights into the nature of our 45th president. It's called Understanding Trump, and I'd like to send it to you as an appreciation gift for a donation of $100 or more to The Heritage Foundation today.

And don't forget that for a limited time, your donation will be matched, dollar-for-dollar, by members of our Board of Trustees, who have promised to give up to $1 million in matching funds for the donations we receive before August 15.

So please give generously in order to take advantage of the matching gift opportunity, and when you give $100 or more, you'll receive a copy of Understanding Trump by Newt Gingrich.

Thanks for all you do as part of the Heritage team.

Best regards,

Ed Feulner
