find by a preponderance of the evidence that asbestos-containing products used on, installed on, or removed from Ford trucks were a substantial contributing factor to the development of Nollie Wood's mesothelioma and death?

For number four we would have requested, do you find by a preponderance of the evidence that Ford was negligent?

Number five we would have requested, do you find by a preponderance of the evidence that the negligence of Ford was a proximate cause of the death of -- of the mesothelioma and death of Nollie Wood?

With that and incorporating yesterday's comments, that is all I have.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Hoffman.

MR. HOFFMAN: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: For Ford.

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor, in addition to the exceptions that we talked about yesterday, Ford would take exception to the continuing duty to warn
