CHICAGOANS HELD FOR EXTORTION

CHICAGO, May 23 (U.P.).—Rudolph Wagner, millionaire Chicago bar owner, was held for paying out back mail money, turned over a third degree threat in police today and arrested the arrest of Robert Kiefer and George A. David.

The two have admitted their part in the extortion, according to Assistant State's Attorney Edward F. Byrne. A grand jury indictment was returned today against the alleged extortionists.

Wagner and David are wanted in connection with the $500,000 extortion, which is the result of the threat to take over the city's police force.
