tural changes in the state government to save the taxpayers "millions of dollars" is worthy of serious consideration, State Senator Edward H. Tickle, Carmel republican, said today.

Tickle is the author of a series of bills designed to reorganize state government.

NOT RIVAL MEASURES.

Asked if his measures are rivals to the proposals advanced by the San Francisco attorney, chairman of a committee of 25 citizens named by Governor Merriam in 1936 to recommend a revamping of the governmental structure, the Carmel senator said "No."

The legislature tomorrow enters upon the sixth week of the

for committee tomorrow.

Featuring the week also will be floor consideration in the assembly of the governor's biennial budget bill which has been cut from $53,000,000 to $50,000,000 by the assembly ways and means committee. Consideration of the bill has been set for Wednesday.

COMMITTEE HEARING.

An assembly committee—the judiciary rules group—will hear the Slater anti-sabotage bill tomorrow, with labor spokesmen scheduled to submit amendments designed to protect rights of organized labor.

The senate labor committee will give a hearing to Assembly-magazines on the streets and in other public places by boys over 10 and girls over 18.
