Annual Council

Minutes

The 1951 Annual Council Meeting of the National Safety Council was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Stevens Hotel, on October 8, with Mr. Ned H. Dearborn, President, presiding.

Following the singing of the National Anthem, the invocation was offered by the Reverend Kenneth N. Hildebrand, Minister of the Central Church of Chicago.

After appropriate opening remarks, President Dearborn turned over the chairmanship of the meeting to Mr. Charles R. Cox, President of the Kennecott Copper Corporation, and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Safety Council.

After a brief but sincere expression of his fundamental interest in the Council and the safety movement, Mr. Cox proceeded with the business of the meeting by announcing a quorum present, in person or by proxy. It was voted to dispense with the calling of the roll; also to dispense with the reading of the minutes of the previous Annual Meeting, the minutes having been printed and circulated to the membership.

Mr. Cox called for the report of the Nominating Committee, which consisted of the following members: George A. Jacoby, Chairman; Lawrence E. Dickson; Walter G. Legge; Miss Marion E. Martin; Guy L. Noble; Robert T. Ross; and W. A. Stewart.

Mr. Jacoby reported in behalf of the Nominating Committee, pointing out that the Constitution authorizes the committee to name candidates for election to the Trustees, to the Board of Directors, and to all Offices except the office of Executive Vice-President. The selections of the committee, Mr. Jacoby stated, were reported to the Secretary of the Council more than 75 days before this meeting, and were announced to all members of the Council on August 24, 1951.

Mr. Jacoby then presented as nominees for Trustees of the Council, to be elected
