

Message

From: Cato Today [newsletters@cato.org]
Sent: 7/14/2020 11:01:35 AM
To: Willis, Sharnett [Willis.Sharnett@epa.gov]
Subject: How to Balance Freedom and Government Involvement in a Pandemic

How to Balance Freedom and Government Involvement in a Pandemic

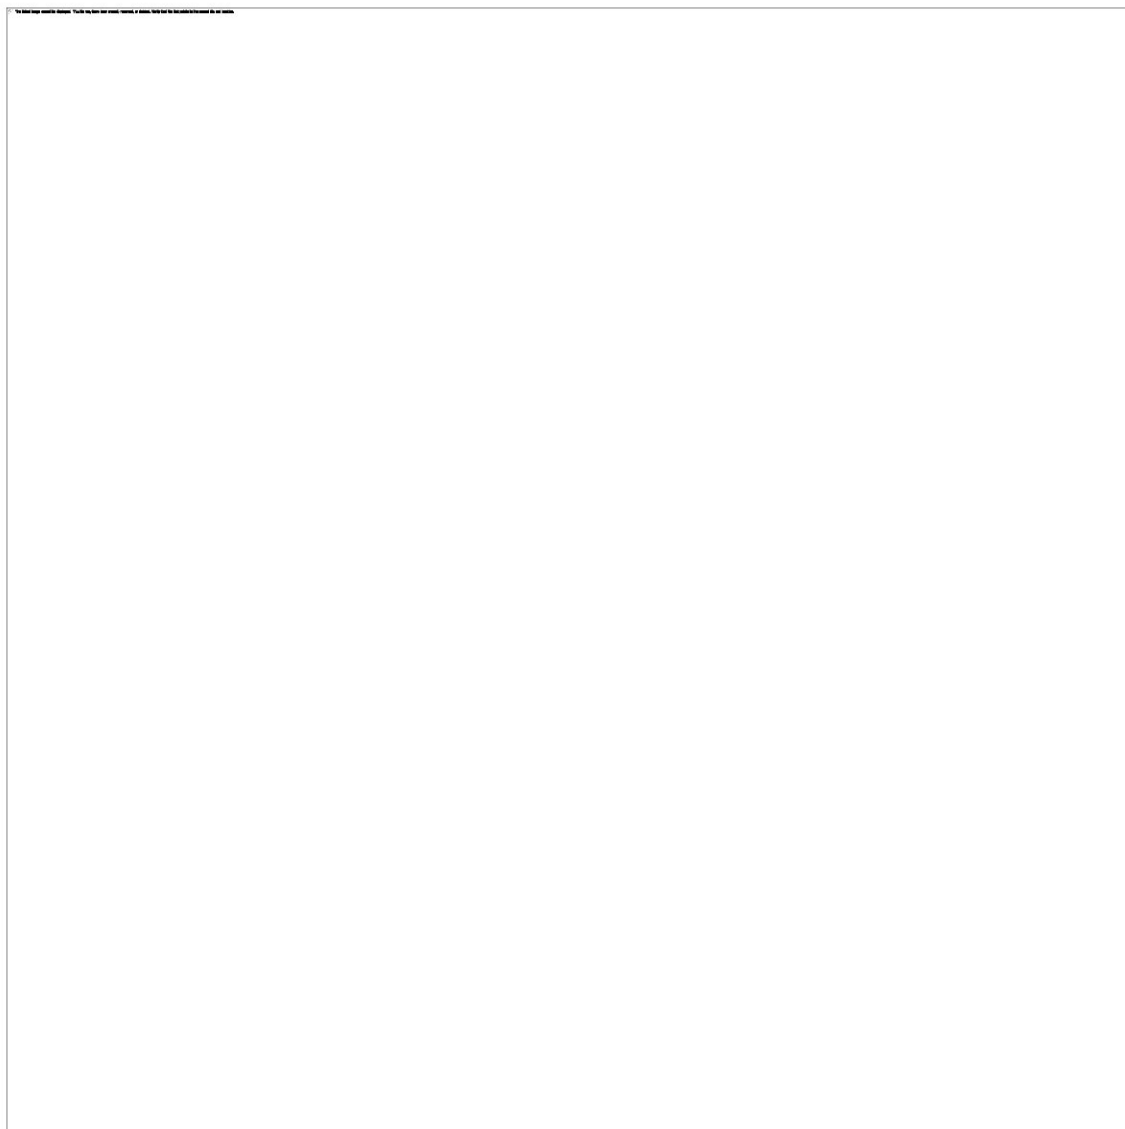

July 14, 2020

It looks like you haven't opened any emails from us in quite some time.

Please let us know if you would like to continue receiving emails from the Cato Institute or be removed from our email list.

Keep me on your list

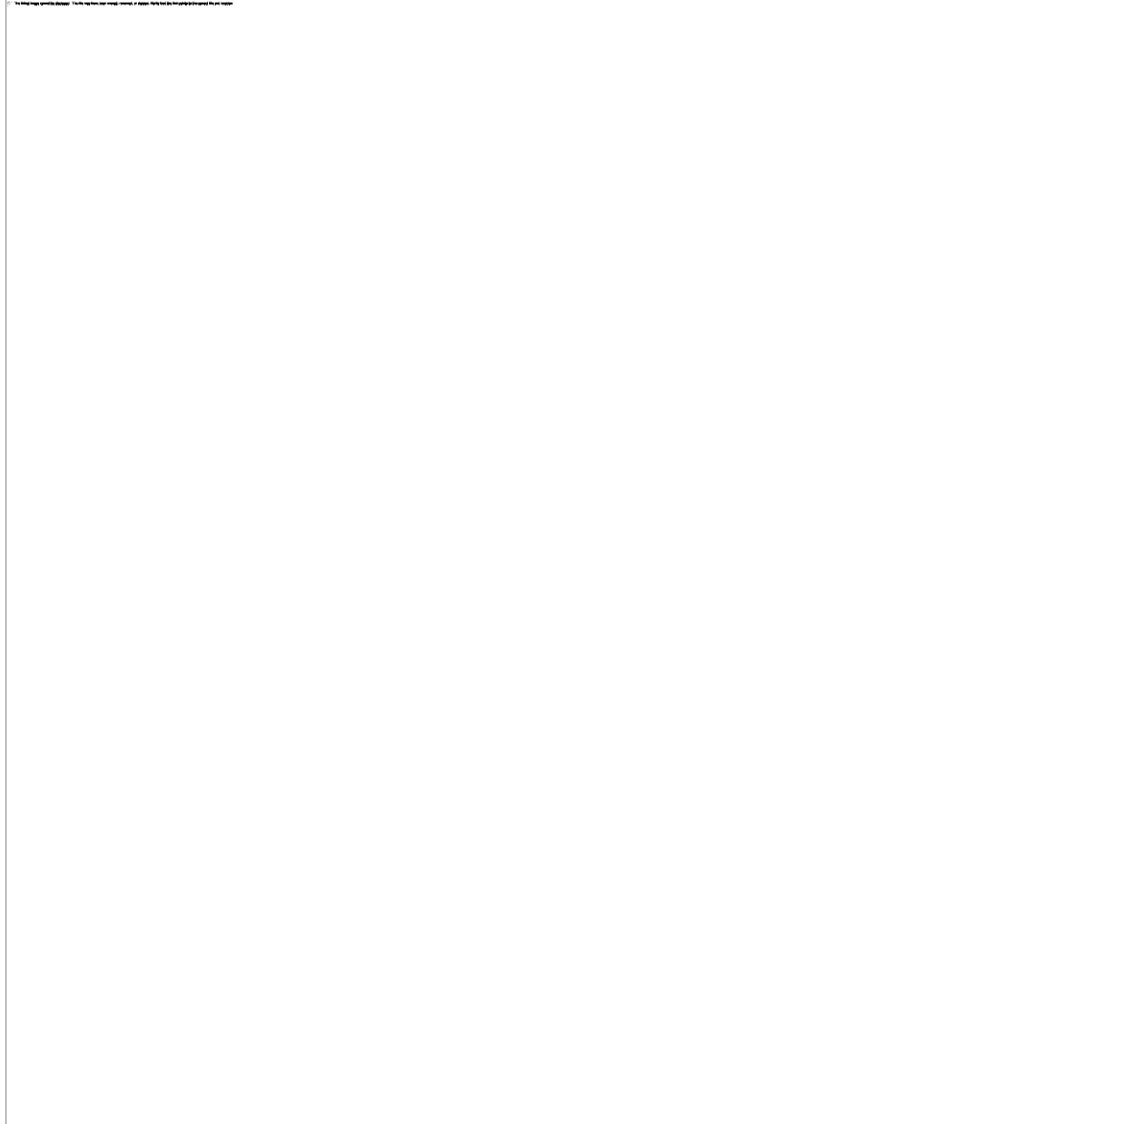

Please remove me

How to Balance Freedom and Government Involvement in a Pandemic

The pandemic reminds liberals of the difference between limited government and incompetent government, but it should reinforce belief in the superiority of liberal democracy.

- Liberalism and Pandemics
- Cato's Research on COVID-19

25 Years of Research on Police Accountability

Cato is proud of its decades of work on the subject of police misconduct and accountability.

- A Quarter Century of Cato Research on Police Accountability
- 'Defund the Police' Is a Bad Slogan, but Some Aspects Are Worth Considering
- George Floyd's Death Must Be a Catalyst for Accountability

Homeschooling: Protecting Freedom, Protecting Children

For advocates, its purpose and value is to open space for diversity, enabling families to provide education different from what any school offers. Critics fear that it isolates children from the myriad people and ideas in society and can enable child abuse to go unchecked.

- Watch the Policy Forum

FEATURED ARTICLES

The Federal Reserve Can Create Money—Will They?

Congress gave the Fed the ability to create money from thin air. The Fed should wield this enormous power wisely.

Read More

USPS: Privatization vs. Bailouts

Congress should privatize the United States Postal Service to give it the flexibility it needs to deal with all the new challenges.

Read More

Restricting Social Media Harms Free Speech

Section 230 is not contingent on politically neutral content moderation, is not a subsidy or special privilege, nor does it make a distinction between publishers and platforms.

Read More

Subscribe to other Cato newsletters

SUPPORT CATO

Cato Institute • 1000 Massachusetts Ave, NW • Washington, DC 20001-5403 • Phone (202) 842 0200

Unsubscribe

willis.sharnett@epa.gov why did I get this email?