

September 20, 1937

Dr. K. D. Bryson
10515 Carnegie Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Doctor Bryson:

Mr. Siebenthaler stopped in my office last week and told me that [REDACTED] had not been doing so well and was complaining of "nervous spells". I think that it might be advantageous if I were to see him again and also attempt to straighten out with the management the misunderstanding which seems to exist. I will probably be in Cleveland on the morning of September 24 and will call you in the morning and if it is convenient for you we can probably see Anna together.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

WFM:vr

Willard F. Machle, M. D.