

LEAD INDUSTRIES ASSOCIATION

182 MADISON AVENUE

NEW YORK 17, N. Y.

May 20, 1960

LEAD HYGIENE and

SAFETY BULLETIN

No. 136

To the Members of the Lead Industries Associations:

THIRTEENTH INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS ON OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH

The triennial International Congress on Occupational Health will be held for the first time in the United States from July 25 to 29, 1960, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City.

Of particular interest to our members will be a session on LEAD POISONING on the morning of Wednesday, July 27, scheduled as follows:

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 9:00-9:15 | A Simple Diagnostic Method for Lead Poisoning
K. Horinchi (Japan) |
| 9:15-9:30 | A Field Survey to Determine the Relative Significance of Tests for Lead Absorption and Poisoning
R. King, A. Thompson (England) |
| 9:30-9:45 | Pathological Aids in the Supervision of Lead Workers
S. G. Rainsford (England) |
| 9:45-10:00 | The Metabolic Porphyrin Precursors of Lead Poisoning.
G. P. Rubino, L. Rosetti, G. Teso (Italy) |
| 10:00-10:15 | Discussion |
| 10:15-10:45 | Recess |
| 10:45-11:00 | Edthamil Calcium Disodium and Lead Poisoning Prevention
R. Truhaut, C. Albehary, C. Boudene (France) |
| 11:00-11:15 | Review of 10 Years Published Experience of Treatment of Lead Absorption with Edthamil or Calcium Sodium EDTA.
E.L. Bellknap (U.S.A.) |
| 11:15-11:30 | Experiences with Calcium Disodium EDTA.
L. Petrovic, M. Stankovic, M. Savicovic, D. Poleti (Yugoslavia) |
| 11:30-11:45 | Effectiveness of DTPA in Removing Plutonium and Other Radioisotopes from Humans
W.D. Norwood (U.S.A.) |
| 11:45-12:00 | Discussion |

Additionally and in other sessions, Dr. R. A. Kabac of Cincinnati will deliver the two following papers:

Tuesday, July 26, 3:45 to 4:00 p.m.

On the Tolerable Limits for Lead in the Atmosphere and Biological Milieus

Wednesday, July 27, 9:45 to 10:00 a.m.

Tetraethyl Lead - The Solution of an International Chemical Hazard.

-2-

Copies of the complete Preliminary Program, the Registration Form and Hotel Accommodation Form may be had by writing or telephoning the Congress office, Room 415, 527 Madison Avenue, New York 22, N.Y., telephone PLass 2-1170.

The undersigned will be glad to secure for members such further information relative to the Congress as may be wished.

Manfred Boarditch

Manfred Boarditch
Director of Health and Safety