skipper of the Vallejo's Blue Crew.

Making the presentation will be George T. Brady, Jr., society president and a seventh generation descendant of Jose Francisco Ortego, who discovered the Golden Gate in 1769.

Brady will be joined by Raoul Ricardo Emparan, of Sonoma, a society member and a grandson of General Vallejo.

Sterling silver, has been plated with California gold and permanently embedded in transparent plastic. It is surrounded by a simple wooden frame.

The society's membership is limited to men whose forebears were California residents prior to 1850. It is the oldest historical society in the West and currently boasts a membership of more than 1,000.
