Dear Dick:

I shall not be able to reach New York until well after dinner time on Thursday evening, since I cannot return to Washington (from the naval base) until near 6.00 P.M. I'll get to the Tuscany as early as I can but it will probably be bedtime. I'll plan to go out to Esso with you early the next morning. We can talk on the way out.

Thanks for making the reservation for me.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Kehoe, M.D.
