Thanks Ryan. Looks like October 17th in DC is the best date now as we have confirmed meetings with a number of Senators that day. But again, he can fly to meet Administrator Pruitt elsewhere on another date if feasible. Just let me know if you need more information.

Thanks,

Amy

Ryan and Hayley,

Just a heads up that my CEO could be in DC this Thursday, October 5th after 1pm as well if Administrator Pruitt is available then?

Thanks,

Amy

Hi Ryan,

Hope all is well. I just left you a voicemail as well. I was hoping to touch base to see whether the October 16th date worked for Administrator Pruitt to meet Honeywell's CEO in DC. If not, we are willing to travel to him elsewhere if you want to suggest dates and locations. As you know these issues are critical to Honeywell. Thank you for checking into this!

Best,

Amy

Ryan and Hayley,

Please find attached a request for Honeywell's CEO Darius Adamczyk, to meet with Administrator Pruitt. He is available to travel to DC for a meeting on October 16th. Please let us know his availability as we can look for alternate dates if that date does not work. We are hoping to get his guidance/insights on strategy and possible next steps in the discussion around the SNAP rule.

We would also love to host him at either our LA or OK facilities when he is available.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

Amy
