Dear Mr. Pitt:

Many thanks for your letter of March 3d and enclosure.
I am always grateful to friends who send in this sort of tripe, as it enables me to let the editors know that it does not go unnoticed, as I have indicated in the letter to Mr. Bradshaw, of which copy is herewith.

I do not have any great regard, but it probably does no harm to go through all the crazy stories on plumbing to me from the shipping bureau and otherwise quite a task in itself.

Sincerely yours,

MB
