

1 THE COURT: Thank you. That was Number 42,
2 correct?

3 THE COURT CLERK: 44.

4 THE COURT: 44. All right. 44 will be
5 admitted into evidence.

6 (Whereupon, Plaintiffs' Exhibit Number 44
7 was received into evidence.)

8 MR. SMITH: Excuse me, Gary, this one,
9 Number 43, we have two different versions of this
10 document, and I just want to show the Court and the 11 jury.

12 We also have another version we don't have
13 on the transparency which is the Owens-Corning version
14 with their Bates stamp numbers in the corner, but the 15 version we are showing you is a little bit more
16 legible and it doesn't have the Bates stamp numbers.

17 MR. IGNATOWSKI: O-I Number 43 marked
18 confidential, investigation concerning the capacity of 19 inhaled Kaylo dust to injure the lung to
20 Owens-Illinois Glass Company by the Saranac
21 Laboratory, January 29th -- is that correct?
