MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection to form.

MR. MENDRZYCKI: Objection.

A Do I agree that that is what the usual pattern was?

Q Yes, sir.

A Yes.

Q That was something known to you and other members of the FMSI throughout the period of time you served at the FMSI; correct?

MR. FRIESTEDT: Objection.

MR. TOWLE: Object to the form.

A For drum brake linings, most people would accept that. I think most people would accept that.

Q Let me draw your attention to a document I will mark as next in order R.

MR. FRIESTEDT: You have already done R.

MR. MENDRZYCKI: I think you are S.

MR. PURCELL: Sorry, S, excuse me. This is a document, a bulletin dated September 1, 1971, by E. W. Drislane, Executive Secretary.

(Exhibit S, 10/9/71 Memo, marked for identification.)
