Mountain States will be asked by the regional War Production Board (WPB) to turn over hides and fat of deer and elk killed during the season to the State game commission of Colorado, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico.

Leslie A. Miller, regional director, advised retailers to request of prospective ammunition purchasers a certification that they voluntarily will deliver hides, pointing out that WPB released a limited amount of ammunition for hunters because deer and elk hides are needed to manufacture gloves for the armed forces.

British Archbishop Arrives in Soviet

MOSCOW, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The Archbishop of York has arrived in the Soviet Union. The visit of the Church of England prelate followed the restoration of the holy synod of the Russian Orthodox Church and the enthronement of Metropolitan Sergei of Moscow as patriarch of all Russia.

The archbishop flew to Astrakhan from Teheran and is expected in Moscow. A London announcement that he already had arrived in Moscow was premature owing to a misunderstanding about his schedule.

German-Born S. F. Woman in WACs

Having once tasted Nazi iron might, German-born Illy Sadie Gerard, 3065 Clay Street, wanted to show her gratitude for the freedom she found in the United States. That's why she enrolled as a private in the Women's Army Corps (WAC), and is now at the first WAC training center at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, dispatches revealed yesterday.

She has been in the United States since 1936 and became a naturalized citizen last year. Her brother, once imprisoned in a Nazi concentration camp, is fighting with the British Army.
