HOW TO CLAIM YOUR WITHHOLDING EXEMPTIONS

1. If SINGLE (or if married and wist withholding as single person), write "1." If you claim no exemptions, write "0."
2. If MARRIED, one exemption each is allowable for husband and wife if not claimed on another certificate.
 - (a) If you claim both of these exemptions, write "2." (b) If you claim one of these exemptions, write "1;" (c) If you claim neither of these exemptions, write "0."
3. Exemptions for age and blindness (applicable only to you and your wife but not to dependents):
 - (a) If you or your wife will be 65 years of age or older at the end of the year, and you claim this exemption, write "1;"
 - (b) If both will be 65 or older, and you claim both of these exemptions, write "2;"
 - (c) If you or your wife are blind, and you claim this exemption, write "1;" If both are blind, and you claim both of these exemptions, write "2;"
4. If you claim exemptions for one or more dependents, write the number of such exemptions. (Do not claim exemption for a dependent unless you are qualified under instruction 4 on other side.)
5. If you claim additional withholding allowances for itemized deductions fit out and attach Schedule A (Form W-4), and enter the number of allowances claimed (if claimed the new Form W-4 each year).
6. Add the exemptions and allowances (if any) which you have claimed and enter total.
7. Additional withholding per pay period under agreement with employer. (See instruction 1.)

1. Number of Exemptions.—Do not claim more than the correct number of exemptions. However, if you expect to owe more income tax than will be withheld, a smaller number of exemptions may be claimed or you may enter into an agreement with your employer to have additional amounts withheld. This is important if you have more than one employer. If both husband and wife are employed, each may ask to have taxes withheld as a "single" person to avoid owing large additional amounts of taxes.

Only one personal exemption may be claimed by nonresident aliens other than residents of Canada, Mexico, or Puerto Rico.

2. Itemized Deductions.—See Schedule A (Form W-4) for instructions on claiming additional allowances based on large itemized deductions.

3. Changes in Exemptions.—You may file a new certificate at any time if the number of your exemptions INCREASES.

You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you DECREASES, for example, because:

(a) Your wife (or husband) for whom you have been claiming exemption is divorced or legally separated, or claims her (or his) own exemption on a separate certificate.

(b) The support of a dependent for whom you claimed exemption is taken over by someone else, so that you no longer expect to furnish more than half the support for the year.

(c) You find that a dependent for whom you claimed exemption will receive $800 or more of income of his own during the year (except your child who is a student or who is under 19 years of age).

The death of a spouse or a dependent, does not affect your withholding until the next year, but requires the filing of a new certificate. If possible, file a new certificate by December 1 of the year in which the death occurs. If you qualify as a surviving spouse with dependent child (children), you may claim your personal exemption on line 2 as a married individual for the two years following the year of the death of your spouse.

4. Dependents.—To qualify as your dependent (line 4 on other side), a person (a) must receive more than one-half of his or her support from you for the year, and (b) must have less than $600 gross income during the year (except your child who is a student or who is under 19 years of age), and (c) must not be claimed as an exemption by such person's husband or wife, and (d) must be a citizen or resident of the United States or a resident of Canada, Mexico, the Republic of Panama or the Canal Zone (this does not apply to an alien child legally adopted by and living with a United States citizen abroad), and (e) must (1) have your home as his principal residence and be a member of your household for the entire year, or (2) be related to you as follows:

Your son or daughter (including legally adopted children), grandchild, stepson, stepdaughter, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law;
Your father, mother, grandparent, stepfather, stepmother, father-in-law or mother-in-law;
Your brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law;
Your uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece (but only if related by blood).
