

We're looking forward to hosting the Administrator at our Ideas Summit on Friday morning.

We're reaching out to see how we can coordinate on the media push for his appearance at the conference. I've looped in Anna Walsh from Pace Public Relations on this email. She is handling media at the conference and will be able to help coordinate.

Please let me know how I can be helpful.

Thank you,

Charlotte

We trimmed down the Administrator's bio. Can we use the version below on our website?
Thank you!

On February 17, 2017, the United States Senate confirmed Scott Pruitt

as the 14th Administrator of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. As Administrator, Mr. Pruitt's overarching goal is to lead EPA in a way that our future generations inherit a better and healthier environment as he works with the thousands of dedicated public servants at EPA who have devoted their careers to helping realize this shared vision, while faithfully administering environmental laws. Most recently, Pruitt served as the Attorney General for Oklahoma. Pruitt became a national leader through a career of advocating to keep power in the hands of hard-working Americans. As Attorney General for Oklahoma, he led the state's legal challenges against property rights intrusion, while protecting Oklahoma's natural resources and environment. He is recognized as a national leader in the cause to restore the proper balance between the states and federal government, and he established Oklahoma's first federalism unit to combat unwarranted regulation and overreach by the federal government. Before being elected attorney general, he served eight years in the Oklahoma State Senate where he was a leading voice for fiscal responsibility. In addition to his life as a civil servant, Pruitt is a successful entrepreneur. As a co-owner and managing general partner of Oklahoma City's Triple-A minor league baseball affiliate, the Oklahoma City Redhawks, Mr. Pruitt took over the team's marketing operations and helped the team become one of the minor league leaders in attendance and merchandise sales. Pruitt is, first and
