Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for our discussion in today's meeting. Unfortunately, I couldn't reach my SID colleague today. However, in preparation, I would like to ensure that I understood you correctly for the task I am about to forward to [REDACTED] (in case [REDACTED] has the capacity).

The task would be to address the physical and chemical key properties in text form for the PC part of the dossier. Here, the whole PFAS scope should be presented and trends should be displayed.

Would that be an accurate description of the task? In any case, if possible could you maybe expand upon this a bit more, so that I have a more concrete outline on the task?

Your input would be very much appreciated.

Best regards,

for the German CA
