Your Cover Story

Our feature story this month is dedicated to the hundreds of workers who are presently constructing the new Navy destroyer tender, the U.S.S. Samuel Gompers. Named in honor of the man who played such an invaluable part in preparing the foundation of the American labor movement, the vessel is due for completion in early 1966.

Pictured on the cover is an artists' conception of the ship. On July 9, officials of government, the Navy, and labor—including our President C. W. Sickles—gathered at the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard to see AFL-CIO President George Meany stamp his initials into the steel plate of the keel and then watched as the great structure was lowered into place. Shown witnessing the keel-laying are (from left) President Hunter P. Wharton, Operating Engineers; President Russell M. Stephens, Technical Engineers; President Russell K. Berg, Boiler Makers; President B. A. Gritta, Metal Trades Department (AFL-CIO); President James A. Suffridge, Retail Clerks; Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz; AFL-CIO President George Meany; Senator Henry M. Jackson; General President C. W. Sickles; and President Peter T. Schoemann, United Association of Plumbers and Pipe Fitters.

In his address, President Meany acknowledged the great and lasting efforts of Samuel Gompers, who worked from his youth until his death in 1924 to see that the rights of laborers both in our country and throughout the world were secured for them. He strived not only for lasting world peace but for the benefits which are in evidence in American labor today—fair wages, reasonable working hours, and acceptable on-the-job conditions. His memory lives on in the hearts of workers everywhere, and it will be further perpetuated in the vessel that will sail the seas bearing his name.

MERKLE PRESS INC. UNION MADE PAPER

from the General President

To All Members of our International Association

Dear Sir and Brother:

Since it was first celebrated, Labor Day has been set aside to honor the skill and industry of the American workingman. But, with the growth of automobile traffic, Labor Day holidays in recent years have been marred by reckless and needless death, injury and damage on our streets and highways.

According to the National Safety Council, off-the-job accidents, alone, take more than twice as many lives—every year—as on-the-job accidents. We must all recognize that safety is a way of life, both on and off the job.

Organized labor has always encouraged and worked for safety. During this Labor Day weekend, we ask every union member as well as everyone else to drive with caution, courtesy, and common sense. Great records have been achieved for safety on the job. Let's take those safe working habits out onto the highway, too. It pays.

Fraternally yours,

C. W. Sickles

In Honor of Labor's First President

U.S.S. Samuel Gompers Takes Shape in Bremerton, Washington

THE first new destroyer tender to be built in the United States since 1945 is now under construction in the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard in Bremerton, Washington. At ceremonies held on July 9, 1964, General President Carl W. Sickles joined other labor officials in witnessing the laying of the keel of the great vessel, which has been officially named the U.S.S. Samuel Gompers.

With the sun shining brightly on the snow-topped Rocky Mountains in the background, AFL-CIO President George Meany, accompanied by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and President Paul Warner of the Bremerton Metal Trades Council, stamped his initials into the steel plate of the keel. Looking on were a number of political, Naval and labor officials, as well as some 600 shipyard workers.

Senator Henry M. Jackson (Dem., Washington) was on hand at the keel-laying ceremony to express his pride in the new U.S.S. Samuel Gompers, under construction in his home state.

In his address preceding the actual keel-laying, President Meany said:

"We in the AFL-CIO are deeply proud that this ship will bear the name of the first leader, and to a very great extent, the creator, of the modern American labor movement.

"Samuel Gompers was a man of peace; but he never lost sight of the fact that the preservation of peace —and the security of American freedom—could only be assured by America's strength.

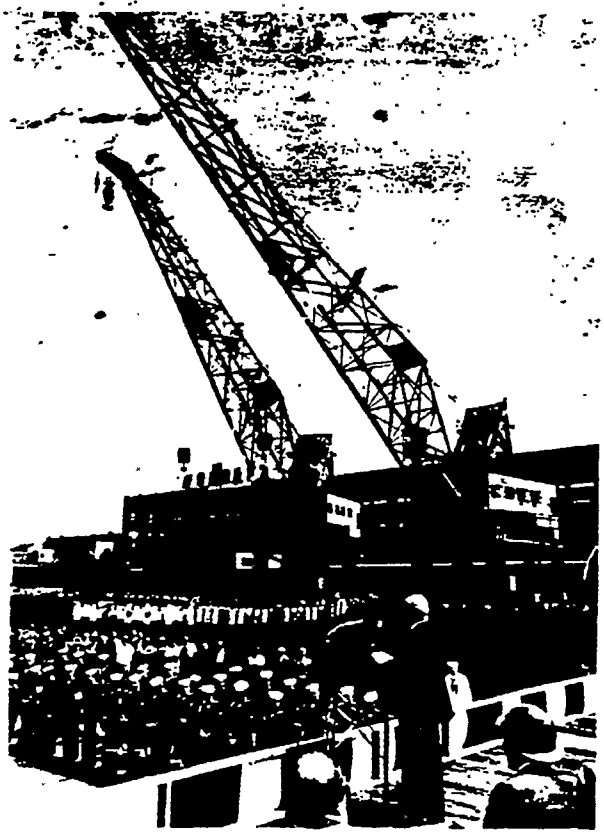

"This knowledge is a part of his heritage to those who have followed him in the American labor movement."

The labor leader continued by warning the assembled audience that we live today in a "much more perilous world" where peace has become more important than even Samuel Gompers could have realized. But he also reminded that peace remains basically dependent on America's strength in every area —social, economic, and military.

"During the next two years," Mr. Meany said, "a ship will rise on this keel, and will become an integral part of this country's defense establishment. . . .

"But let us also hope that during those same two years, the strength of the nation will be building up in other ways." Examples of this increasing strength will be seen in the terms of the new civil rights bill, which hopefully will become "a part of the fabric of American life;" in the successful war on poverty, with its unemployment and low wages; and with the elimination of barriers against educational opportunity.

The naming of the ship in honor of Mr. Gompers is fitting in that he was a man dedicated "to the cause of social and economic justice." During his years as founder and leader of the trade union movement, he fought diligently for the high standards which prevail today—better wages, shorter working hours, improved job conditions. And his fight did not stop there, for he also advanced the causes which would benefit all Americans and strived unceasingly toward the eventual creation of a "true spirit of brotherhood among men of all nations," a goal which remains to be realized.

AFL-CIO President George Meany delivered the main address at the ceremony. He proclaimed Gompers "a man who believed in and worked for peace" but who "knew its best guarantee is the power of self-protection."

Two workers of the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard greeted President Meany and Assistant Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds during the proceedings of the keel-laying ceremony. These man will continue to work on the U. S. S. Samuel Gompers until its completion in 1966.

Concluding, President Meany noted that, in reality, the new destroyer tender will be a ship of war in the great tradition of the U.S. Navy, where ships have "symbolized American good will and friendship. . . .

"Thus the U.S.S. Samuel Gompers, like the man for whom it is named, will symbolize both the nation's determination to safeguard human liberty and its dedication to the cause of human brotherhood."

Preceding President Meany's address, Rear Admiral Floyd B. Schultz, Commander of the Puget Sound Shipyard, introduced Rear Admiral W. A. Brockett, Chief of the Bureau of Ships, Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg, and Senator Henry M. Jackson, all of whom made short statements concerning the occasion.

Following Mr. Meany, the Honorable Victor M. Longstreet, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, presented Honorable W. Willard Wirtz, Secretary of Labor, who conveyed his own and the message of President Lyndon B. Johnson. The Secretary referred to Mr. Gompers as the "principal architect of the free labor movement in America—President of the AFL for 37 years—coworker with Woodrow Wilson for peace at Versailles—champion for over half a century of the simple ideal that it is only people that matter."

He concluded by delivering the first entry on the new vessel's log, the message from the President of the United States. Mr. Johnson proclaimed that the ship will bear a proud name and that she will "take to the oceans of the world the reminder that progress is possible only when each free man respects the dignity and the rights of others."

The destroyer tender, scheduled for launching in early 1966, has been designed by the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard to be capable of providing supplies, repairs, and support facilities for all types of destroyers, including support of missile systems and anti-submarine weapons and equipment, advanced communications and electronics systems, and nuclear propulsion plants.

Upon completion, the Gompers will have a full-load displacement of 20,500 tons, a length of 644 feet, and a beam of 85 feet. She will travel at speeds in excess of 18 knots and will be powered by engines producing 20,000 shaft horsepower.

One five-inch .38 caliber gun and six .50 caliber machine guns for limited self defense will be mounted on the ship. She will carry a crew of 135 officers and 1668 enlisted men.

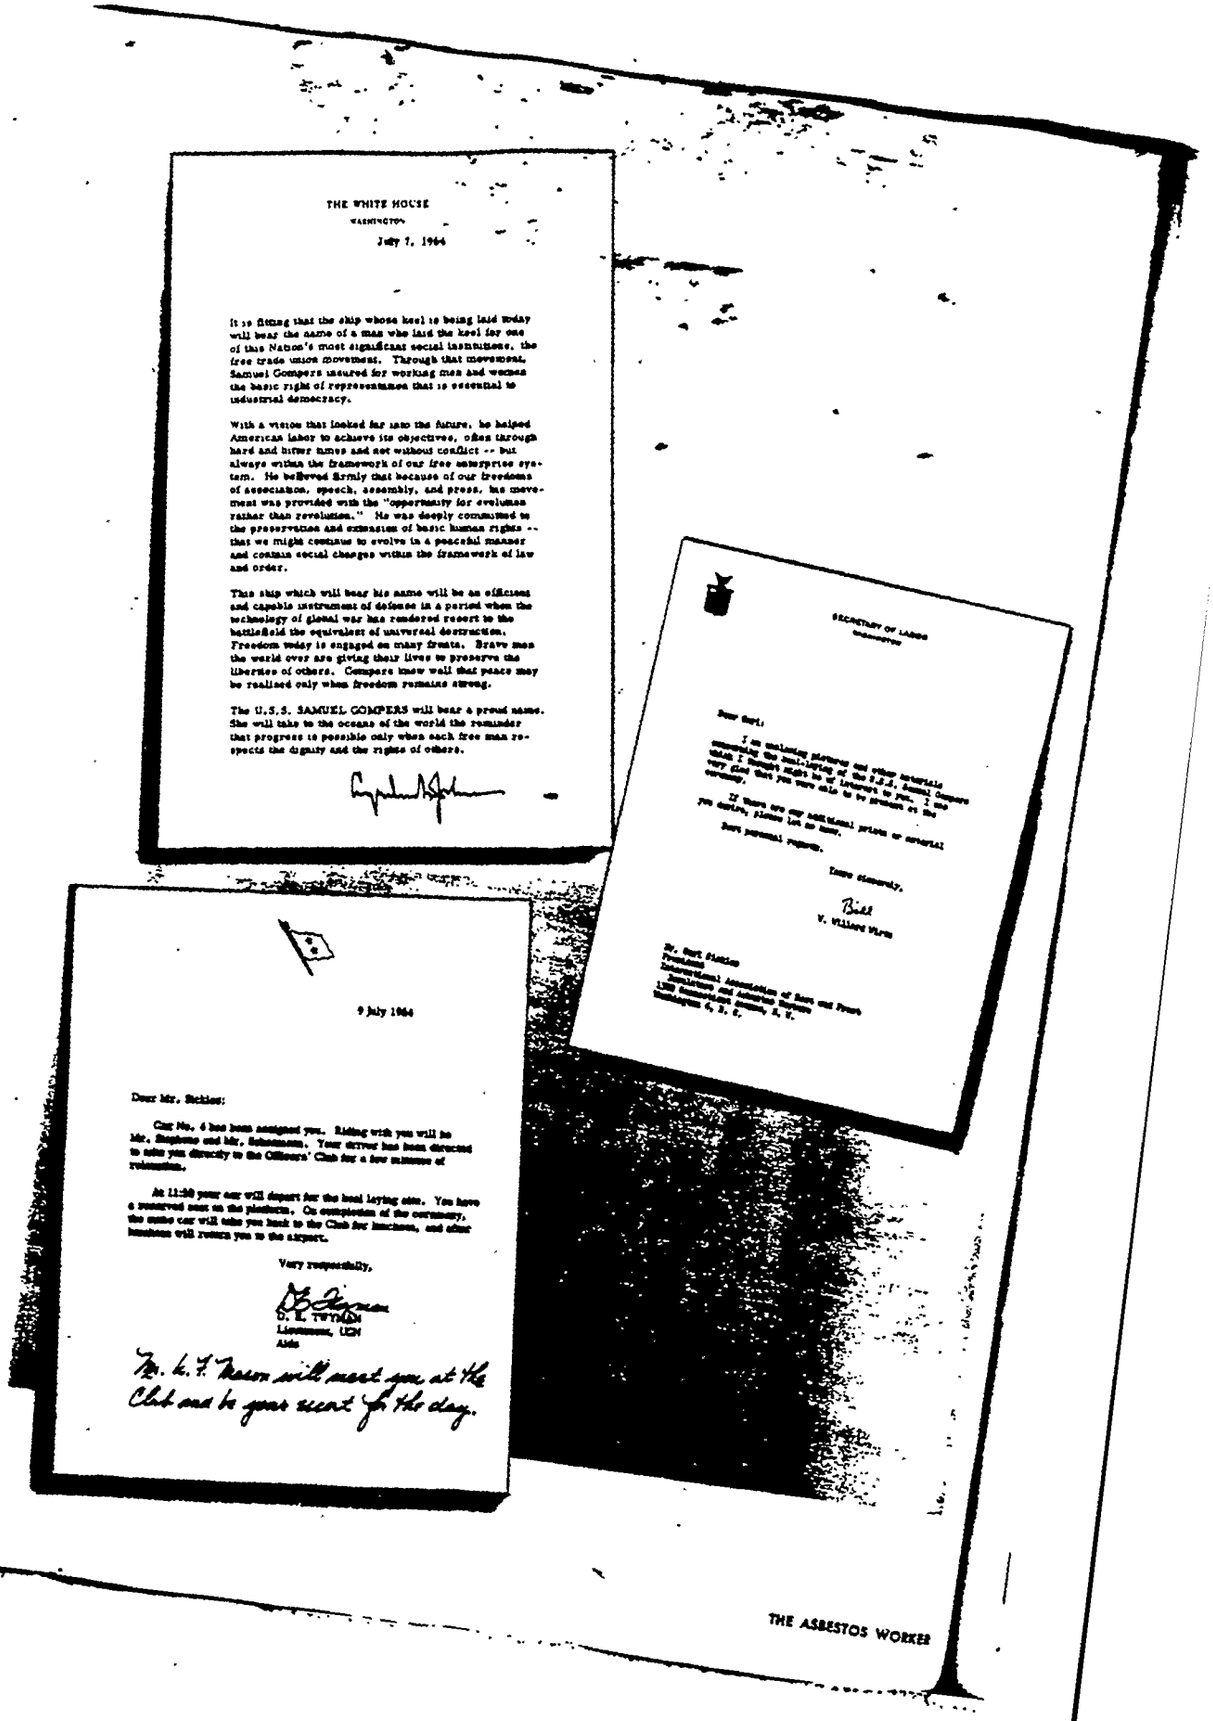

Destroyer tenders have long been an integral part of the great defense systems of this nation's Navy. The tenders have been called "floating miniature navy yards," since destroyers depend upon them for maintenance, repair, and supplies after they leave the ground shipyard. The Gompers, being the first new tender to be built in 20 years, reflects the overwhelming advancements that have been made in the modern missile-firing destroyers. She will have one crew to operate her and one which will perform repair, supply and medical functions for as many as six guided missile destroyers along side at one time. Her specialty shops will number 52 for repairs in metal, wood, hulls, machinery, canvas, and other areas of ship maintenance. Cranes will be capable of lifting 30 tons; she will

Several workers of the Naval Shipyard proceed past the massive U.S.S. Samuel Gompers keel before the ceremony. The keel was lowered into place at the conclusion of the proceedings.

Draped with colored bunting and bearing the portrait of Samuel Gompers, the keel hung suspended before it was put in place following the ceremony.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 7, 1964

It is fitting that the ship whose keel is being laid today will bear the name of a man who laid the keel for one of this Nation's most significant social instruments, the free trade union movement. Through that movement, Samuel Gompers insured for working men and women the basic right of representation that is essential to industrial democracy.

With a vision that looked far into the future, he helped American labor to achieve its objectives, often through hard and bitter times and not without conflict -- but always within the framework of our free enterprise system. He believed firmly that because of our freedoms of association, speech, assembly, and press, his movement was provided with the "opportunity for evolution rather than revolution." He was deeply committed to the preservation and extension of basic human rights -- that we might continue to evolve in a peaceful manner and continue social changes within the framework of law and order.

This ship which will bear his name will be an efficient and capable instrument of defense in a period when the technology of global war has rendered resort to the battlefield the equivalent of universal destruction. Freedom today is engaged on many fronts. Brave men the world over are giving their lives to preserve the liberties of others. Gompers knew well that peace may be realized only when freedom remains strong.

The U.S.S. SAMUEL GOMPERS will bear a proud name. She will take to the oceans of the world the reminder that progress is possible only when each free man respects the dignity and the rights of others.

Davis-Bacon Revisions Signed into Law at White House

Members of Congress and labor leaders pictured at the White House during the signing of Bill H. R. 6041 (an Act to amend the prevailing wage section of the Davis-Bacon Act).

A long-awaited improvement to the original Davis-Bacon Act of 1931 was signed into law on July 2 by President Lyndon B. Johnson. General President Carl W. Sickles was among those invited guests who witnessed the signing at the White House, and he received a pen used by the President in affixing his signature.

The revisions, a feature of modernization which has taken top priority in the legislative recommendations of the Building and Construction Trades Department, will substantially strengthen the bill of 30 years ago. The new law calls for such items as health, welfare and pension provisions in collective bargaining agreements to be considered in computing wages in the Labor Department's predeterminations. It will apply to Federally-financed construction projects, but not to building which is strictly intrastate.

Senators Hubert H. Humphrey (Dem., Minn.) and Thomas A. Kuchel (Rep., Calif.) led the push for Senate adoption. The amendments had previously passed the House last January by a 357-50 vote, backed by Representative James Roosevelt (Dem., Calif.). The favorable Senate voice vote came shortly after passage of the civil rights bill.

AFL-CIO President George Meany had written a strong personal plea to the Senate before passage, asking for favorable action by that body to destroy the injustice of the former Act, saying that the employer who does not pay fringe benefits has an obvious and unfair advantage in bidding on Federal construction jobs.

Following passage, Building and Construction Trades Department President C. J. Haggerty praised the action, saying that the new bill represents a great victory for the building trades.

"The new amendments," he said, "are entirely in keeping with the spirit and purpose of the original Davis-Bacon Act."

Section 4 of the new bill provides that amendments take effect 90 days following enactment. This does not apply to contracts which are already in existence or to those made pursuant to bids outstanding.

President Lyndon B. Johnson presented General President Sickles and other officials present with pens used during the signing of the new Davis-Bacon Act.

Four Hundred Attend Eighth Annual Craftsmanship Awards Dinner of Washington Building Congress in July

MORE than 400 people attended the eighth annual Craftsmanship Awards dinner of the Washington Building Congress at the Mayflower Hotel on July 13, 1964. Twenty individual tradesmen and one team composed of three men received certificates of exceptional craftsmanship for outstanding work on buildings in the metropolitan Washington area.

President Sickles, Secretary-Treasurer Hutchinson and Vice President Haas, together with Local No. 24, Washington, D. C., President Sonnefeld and Business Agent Hoyle attended this dinner at which two Local No. 24 members, Brothers Charles P. Hawk and Roland E. Thomas, Jr., received awards for exceptional craftsmanship.

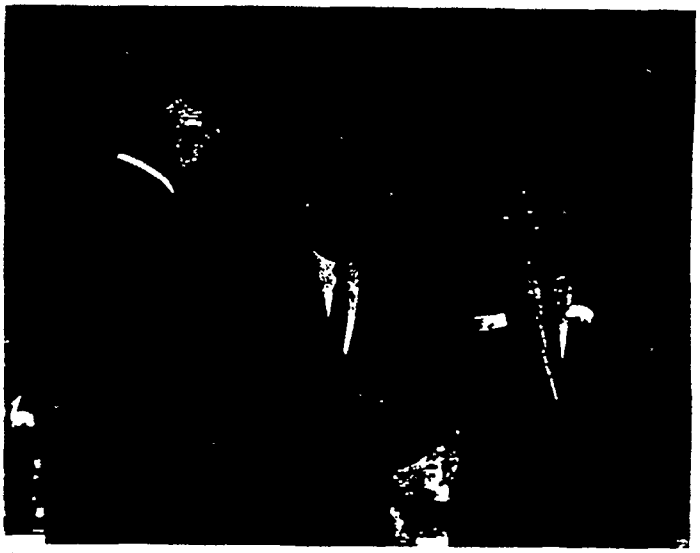

William R. Lockhart, President of the Washington Building Congress, presided at the dinner. Roger E. Allard, Chairman of the Craftsmanship Awards Committee, read the citations as each winner was escorted to the platform by his employer to receive his award. J. C. Turner, President of the Greater Washington Central Labor Council, presented the certificates and gold lapel pins at the dinner. Karel Yasko, Assistant Commissioner for Design and Construction, General Services Administration, was the speaker.

Awards are given to men who have displayed unusual interest, ingenuity and skill in working out commendable solutions left to their discretion in field and shop and/or executed work requiring exceptional skill.

The Washington Building Congress believes that recognition of fine craftsmanship is a very real service to the entire local construction industry. Public recognition of superior craftsmanship is deeply satisfying to a mechanic doing outstanding work at the regular pay rate. The encouragement of fine workmanship improves labor-management and public relations and benefits everyone in the industry.

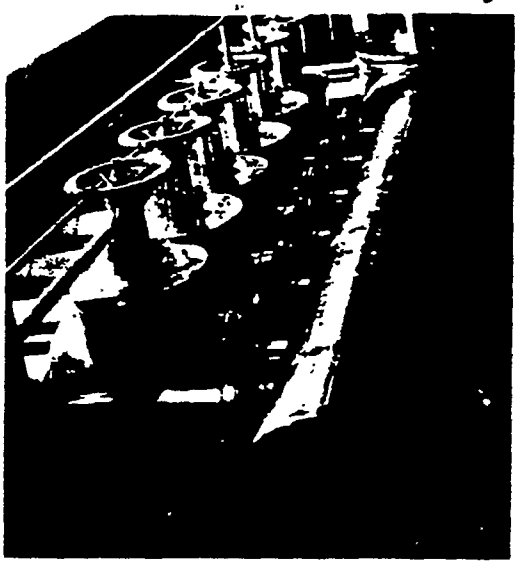

Charles P. Hawk (center) receives his award from J. C. Turner. The citation was read by Roger Allard (in background), as Mr. Arthur M. Gibbons, of Walter E. Campbell Company, looks on.

Award-Winning Installations by Our Craftsmen

In addition to the above, many of our local unions have negotiated for and obtained more or less similar bonds from their employers, through collective bargaining, guaranteeing payment of wages and fringe conditions to our membership. This, of course, eliminates the necessity of any of these contractors having to post a local bond where the local agreements calls for same.

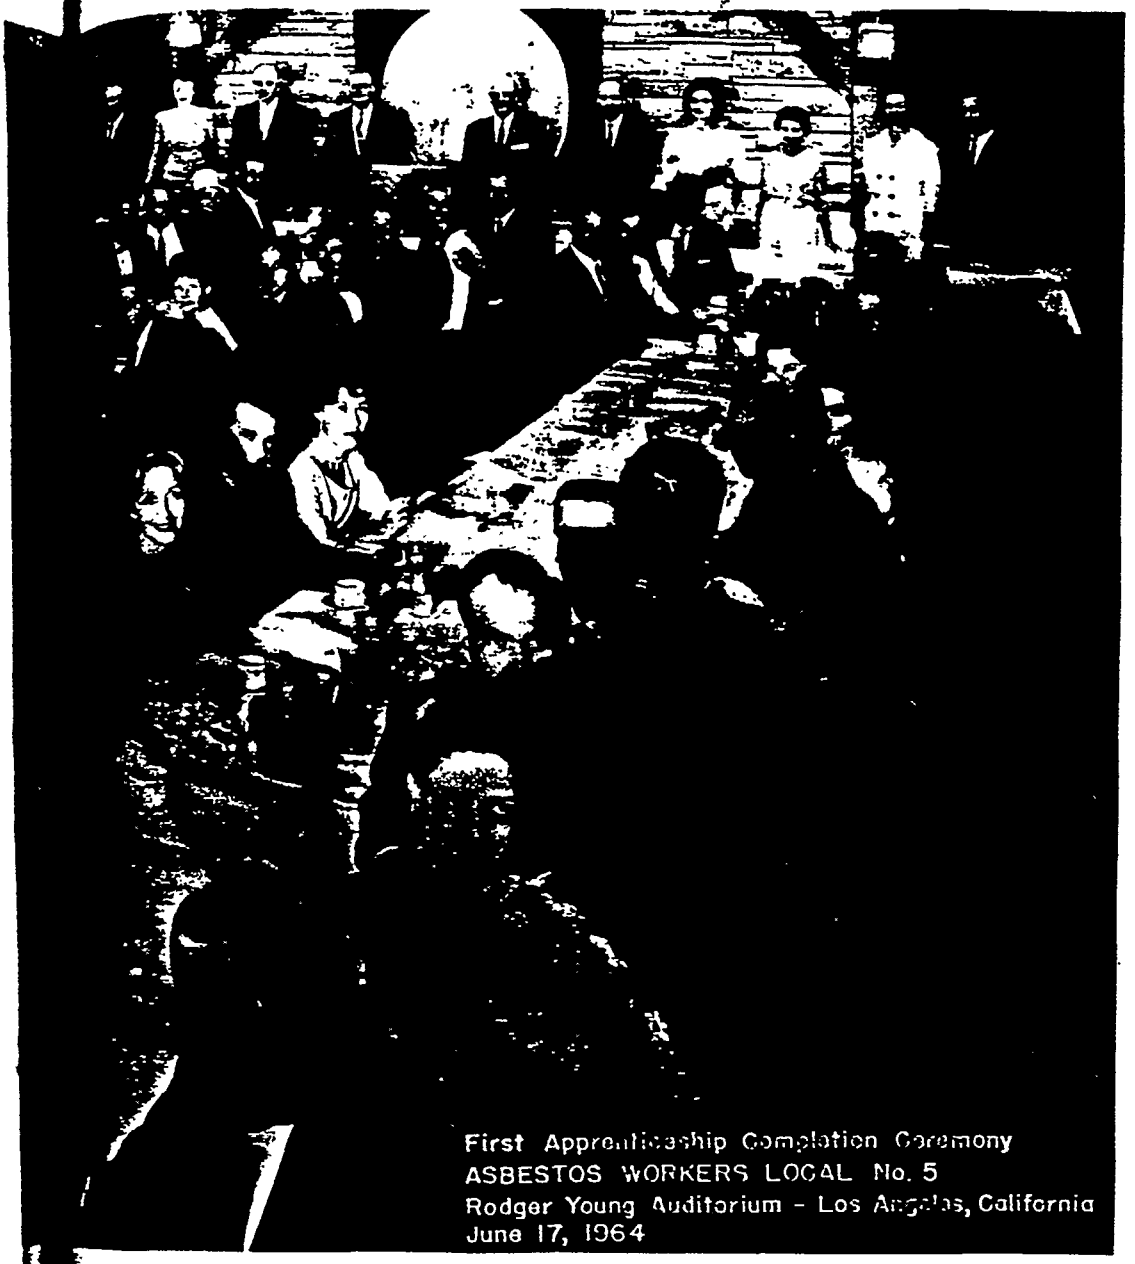

This issue developed as a consequence of several bad experiences on the part of our membership in various localities, where the employers were unable to meet their financial obligations.

Hartford. Conn.
May 9, 1964

Y., Charles Lent; Local No. 123 Worcester County, Mass., Edward Whiterell.

Also in attendance was General President C. W. Sickles and International Vice President George Rider.

Minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read. A letter of resignation as President of the New York-New England States Conference was read from Brother Robert Dotterer.

A financial report was read and accepted by the delegates.

The delegates gave their reports and were given counsel by General President Sickles whenever necessary on procedures to be followed.

Trade employment of the locals was discussed. With the exception of Locals 4, 6, 31, 33 (presently on strike) 43, 26 (all building trades out), the other locals had no immediate problems as employment was good. These locals took the opportunity in thanking Local No. 12 and Local No. 40 for easing this acute unemployment problem.

The Anthrax (hoof and mouth disease) death of a pipecoverer was brought to the attention of the delegates. He had been working with hairfelt. President Sickles had referred the matter to Dr. Irving Selikoff. The U.S. Department of Health is checking into this matter also.

Election for the unexpired term of Conference Vice President was held. Brothers Herbert Anderson and James Hawley were nominated. After balloting Brother Herbert Anderson was declared the winner having received 12 votes and Brother Hawley receiving 6.

Brothers William Kelly and Herbert Anderson were duly sworn in by President C. W. Sickles as Conference President and Vice President respectively.

Some questions were raised as to territorial boundaries and President Sickles advised maps would be available in the near future.

Brother Buratovich made a motion that the next Conference meeting be held in New York City. Motion was accepted and approved. The delegates would be informed of time and place.

With no further business to discuss the meeting was adjourned at 1 p.m. after which the delegates were tendered a luncheon as guests of Local No. 33.

Respectfully submitted,
Nicholas Buratovich
Secretary

Middle Atlantic States

Harrisburg, Pa.
July 18, 1964

The regular quarterly meeting of the Middle Atlantic States Conference of Asbestos Workers was held on the above date in the Governors Room of the Hotel Penn Harris and was called to order by President Andrew T. Haas at 10:15 a.m. with the following delegates responding to roll call: Local 2, Pittsburgh, Pa., Fred E. Rust, Jr.; Local 11, Baltimore, Md., Joseph P. Zinser and Roger Carnes; Local 14, Philadelphia, Pa., Philip Ackler and Charles I. Seeberger; Local 23, Harrisburg, Pa., Carol Crandy and Lavern G. Reichard; Local 24, Washington, D.C., Norman L. Hoyle and Bernard C. Sonnefeld; Local 32, Newark, N.J., James F. Mulhern and James F. Dwyer, Jr.; Local 38, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Edward G. Skuchas and David M. Powell; Local 42, Wilmington, Del., Alfonso V. Walker and Colwell T. Gibbons; Local 83, Norfolk, Va., Thomas G. Bunting and Alexander Roberts, Jr.; Local 85, Atlantic City, N.J., Thomas A. Dailey and Joseph E. Crilley; Local 88, Richmond, Va., Joseph F. Parker and Robert L. Anderson; Local 89, Trenton, N.J., Stephen J. Kopp and Paul J. Reszler, Jr.; Local 100, Roanoke, Va., Edward C. Dalton and Richard C. Booker; representing the General Office were General President Carl W. Sickles and Vice President Andrew T. Haas.

President Haas, due to his assignment to the General Office, vacated the chair to Vice President James F. Mulhern.

Credentials were read for Brother Charles I. Seeberger, Local 14, Philadelphia, Pa., accepted and the delegate seated.

Minutes of the last meeting were accepted as published in the May issue of the ASBESTOS WORKER.

The delegates then made their business reports and it was noted that seven Locals were still on strike with the controversial Article XI the main issue in all negotiations. Three locals have recently settled, one with the original Article XI and two with Article XI as amended.

Delegate Mulhern reported that an X-ray machine has been installed in the office of Local 32, Newark, N.J., by Dr. Selikoff for the purpose of continuing his research on the health hazards of our industry.

During the delegates' reports President Sickles gave advice and instructions whenever necessary. He also gave a report on the negotiations with the IDCNA from start to finish, on Article XI, original and as amended.

He also reported on his attendance at the keel-laying of the USS Sam Gompers at Puget Sound which when placed in service will be a maintenance and repair mother ship for the fleet at sea.

President Sickles concluded his report remarking that the bane of the Construction industry—the jurisdictional dispute—is still one of the most controversial issues that must be resolved by organized labor. This has become recognized to the extent that two full days of the summer Executive Council meeting of the Building and Construction Trades Department will be devoted to meetings of the General Presidents with one, if not the most important subject being "JURISDICTION" and an effort to amend the present or create new procedures to be used—its aim—to correct this cancerous condition within the industry.

Delegate Kopp reported that all preparations for the next meeting are complete and that the same will be held at the EASTERNER Motor Lodge, Exit 7 on the New Jersey Turnpike, on Saturday, October 3, 1964 at 10 a.m.

With all business transacted, adjournment was voted at 1 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Stephen J. Kopp
Secretary.

P.S. All delegates and ladies are appreciative to the Committee on Arrangements of host Local 23, Harrisburg, Pa., in making our visit an enjoyable one. We are indeed happy to have participated in the festivities on the occasion of your first Anniversary Dinner and Dance, and sincerely trust that you have many more. Reference must be made to the renewing of old memories with the Rev. Alfred K. Gotwalt, E.U.B., former member, business agent and delegate to the Conference from Local 65 now together with Local 71, the new Local 23, who gave the invocation and also recalled some of his well remembered "doozies." An appropriate address by President Sickles and his presentation of twenty year membership buttons to Brothers Heller and Kuntz, on behalf of Local 23.

Delegates of the Central States Conference, their wives and guests attending dinner tendered by host Local No. 84.

Va., James Wilks and Elmer Robertson; Local 84, Akron, Ohio, Robert McNeal; General President Sickles was also in attendance representing the General Office.

Moved and supported the minutes of the previous meeting as reported in the Asbestos Worker be accepted. Motion carried.

Moved and supported the financial report be accepted. Motion carried.

Moved and supported the letter relative to Brother John Grob be received and communications in regard to adjustments of Local Union territorial boundaries be turned over to President Sickles. Motion carried.

General President Sickles gave advice on various matters of concern to our membership as they were brought to his attention during the delegates report of conditions and problems in their territories.

Following the reports of delegates, the meeting was opened for general discussion of matters of interest to our craft in general.

Delegate Eby informed the delegates of the death of one of the members from the disease of Anthrax, reportedly contracted from working with hair felt which contained goat hair imported from Asia and Africa. According to the information received, the imported goat hair was contaminated with Anthrax spores, which can remain dormant for up to 50 years. Members should wear respirators, gloves, and long sleeved shirts when working with hair felt unless first analyzed and found to be free of the Anthrax spores. Should the skin become irritated and a pimple or abcess form, be sure to advise the doctor to check for Anthrax as the cause of the condition.

Delegate Wood stated that four recent deaths and two disabled members of Local 47 were due to Asbestosis. He also informed the delegates that the T. B. Society had agreed to alert their x-ray technicians to look for signs of asbestosis in checking chest x-rays.

President Sickles gave a report on craft conditions as he found them in his travels. He stressed the need for the delegates to follow as closely as possible the recommended form of agreement and to get the advice of the General Office before including any changes of language suggested by the employers. He furthered his remarks by outlining the history of the much disputed Article XI.

Local 46, Knoxville, Tenn., requested that the next Conference meeting be held in Knoxville. Moved and supported that the request be accepted. Motion carried.

Local 41, Fort Wayne, Ind., requested that the Conference meeting being held in the Spring of 1965 be held in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Moved and supported that the request be accepted. Motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

The delegates and their wives were guests of Local 84 at a dinner-dance the same evening at which President Sickles was the principal speaker.

On behalf of the officers and delegates to the Central States Conference, I wish to thank the members of Local 84 for a very enjoyable evening.

Respectfully submitted,
Malcolm Detlefs,
Secretary

Western States

Salt Lake City, Utah
June 20 and 21, 1964

The annual meeting of the Western States Conference was called to order at 9:15 a.m. by Conference President Frank Calegory at the Ramada Inn, Salt Lake City, Utah, June 20 and 21, 1964.

The delegates were led by Conference President Calegory in pledging their allegiance to the Flag of the United States.

President Calegory appointed Brother Floyd Greenway of Local No. 69 as Sergeant at Arms for this Conference meeting.

The Credential Committee reported the following delegates present: Local No. 5, Los Angeles, Calif., George Hunt, Ben Harvey, Lloyd Fossen, Ed Smith, Thomas Paul and Orville Jackson; Local No. 7, Seattle, Wash., Ted Dana, Edward Lontz and Charles Luck; Local 16, San Francisco, Calif., Edward Geiger, Richard Holmes, Edward Pfleghaar, J. Wayne Kelly and Penny Christiansen; Local No. 20, Long Beach, Calif., Navy Yard, Webster Ay and Charles Scherer; Local No. 28, Denver, Colo., Patton Gilmore and Stanley Kellogg; Local No. 29, San Francisco, Calif., Naval Shipyard, Ralph Morse; Local No. 36, Portland, Oregon, Earl Kirkland and Robert Kramer. Local No. 69, Salt Lake City, Utah, Frank Calegory, Floyd Greenway and Thomas McArthur, Local No. 70, Vallejo, Calif., Naval Shipyard, Howard Snyder and Evan Williams; Local No. 73, Phoenix, Ariz., John Burns and Howard McCorkle; Local No. 76, Albuquerque, N. Mex., Melvin Lane and Charles Liesse; Local No. 82, Spokane, Wash., Darrell Grant, William Kendricks and M. Leroy Nicolls; Local No. 97, Anchorage, Alaska, Bill Anderson and Jack Endsley; Local No. 135, Las Vegas, Nevada, George Layman and Robert Ryerson.

General President C. W. Sickles and General Secretary-Treasurer Albert E. Hutchinson were in attendance at this meeting and were introduced by President Calegory, both of whom said they were glad to be in attendance at this Conference meeting.

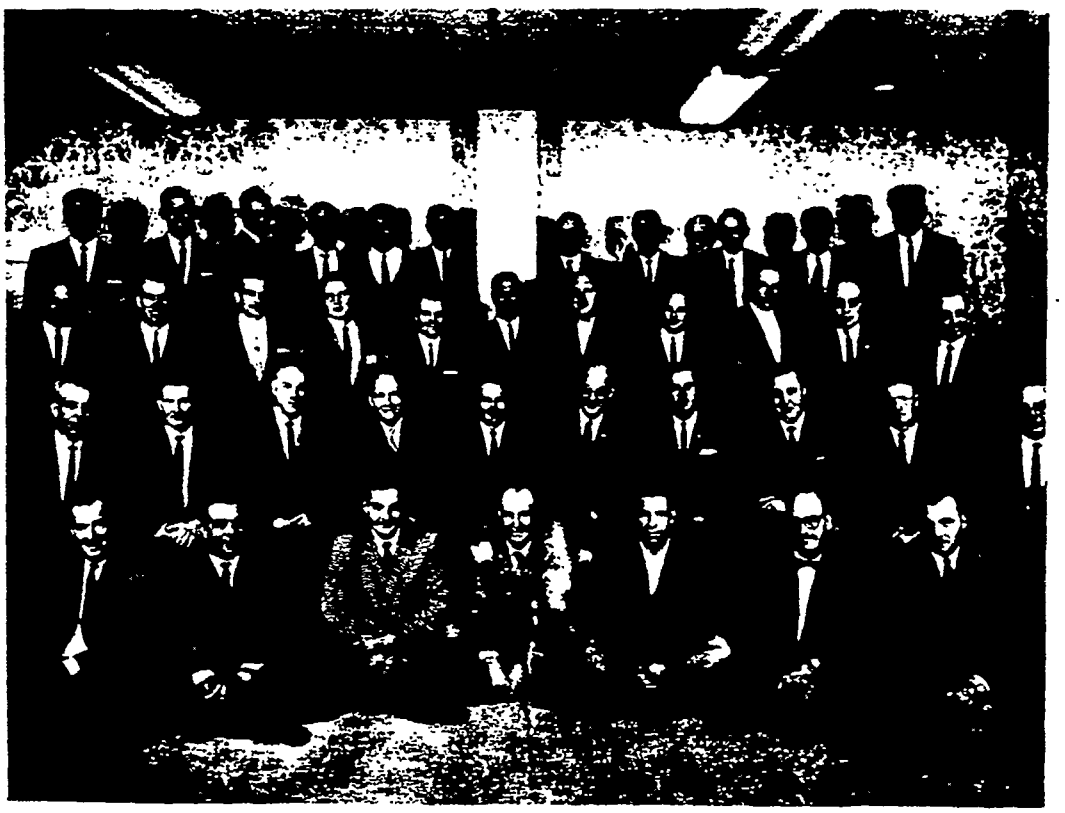

A motion was made, seconded and passed that the minutes as printed and received by all local unions, be approved as presented.

President Calegory appointed Brothers Stanley Kellogg and Thomas McArthur as the Credential Committee and Brothers Ted Dana and M. Leroy Nicolls as the Audit Committee.

After a discussion on health hazards, the meeting was adjourned for lunch at 12 noon.

Upon reconvening at 1:50 p.m. President Calegory introduced our guests, Mr. Ben Bullough, President of the Bullough Asbestos and Supply Co. of Salt Lake City, Utah, Mr. Tom Breach, Manager of the Salt Lake City, Utah branch of the Fiberglas Engineering and Supply Co., Inc. and Mr. Kenneth McCaffree, Executive Secretary of the Associated Insulation Contractors of the Western States. Mr. Bullough, being one of the "mainstays" in the insulation industry in the West, gave this Conference some of his wise advice which he has collected over the years. The keen attention and the applause given Mr. Bullough showed the respect this man well deserves. Mr. Breach has many friends in this Conference, as he has worked with some of our Brothers in one capacity or another for some years. Mr. Breach is being transferred to San Francisco as manager. Mr. McCaffree expressed his opinion on several matters confronting this industry. In Mr. McCaffree's remarks it was indicated that there is some doubt, from reports he has received, as to the direct relationship between what we call health hazards because of the materials we use in our work each day and the respiratory and cancerous ailments which we feel are directly connected to these materials. Mr. McCaffree concluded however, that there is need for more research on these points.

General President Sickles in a direct rebuttal to Mr. McCaffree's remarks said that evidence beyond a doubt has been established by years of research and study by renowned specialists in this field that our people's life expectancy is greatly reduced because of the materials with which we work. The vast research being done in our industry and case histories turned over to Dr. Selikoff and his staff, have clearly shown our fears to be justified: The need for further study is mutually agreed upon—but recognition of these hazards by the employer and manufacturer should also be forthcoming.

Communications were read relating to the acceptance of Local No. 135, Las Vegas, Nevada into this Conference. A motion was made, seconded and passed that Local No. 135 be seated with full voice and vote in the Western States Conference.

A Communication from Brother Ed Novak, covering his resignation as Vice President of this Conference was read. It was pointed out that Brother George Hunt, Business Manager of Local No. 5 had been filling in for Brother Novak who has been sick. A motion was made, seconded and passed that Brother Hunt fulfill the unexpired term of Brother Novak. The Secretary was instructed to write Brother Ed Novak a letter of appreciation for past services.

A communication from Local No. 76 was placed before the members of this Conference for consideration. Business Agent Liesse and Brother Love of Local No. 76 were called on to present their reasons why Local No. 76 should be affiliated with the Western States Conference. After some discussion, a motion was made and seconded that Local No. 76 be accepted in the Western States Conference. The vote was cast and counted. The results are 19 yes, 13 no, 1 abstention. Local No. 76 is now a member of the Western States Conference. The ballot committee was Brothers Howard Snyder, Ralph Morse and Charles Scherer.

The need for a full time International Representative for the Western States Conference was discussed. President Sickles said that this Conference should submit a petition to the General Office, requesting a full time International Representative for the Western States Conference. President Sickles assured this Conference that a petition of this kind would be considered but what the results would be, he could not guarantee. A motion was made, seconded and passed that the Western States Conference petition our International for a full time International Representative for the Western States Conference. The man to be selected is to be from the [illegible] Conference. This motion passed unanimously. The Secretary was instructed to draft a petition relating to the previous motion and forward it to our International's General Office.

A motion was made, seconded and passed that the President of the Western States Conference be present at the next regular meeting of our International's General Executive Board, to present our case in relation to the need for a full time Representative of the International in the Western States Conference.

A question was asked through the Chairman of General President Sickles about the dissension that exists between several of the International officers and General President Sickles. After some discussion on this point, General President Sickles said this matter will be resolved by the official family.

The health hazards of our trade was discussed at length. The lung X-rays on an annual basis was considered. A motion was made, seconded and passed that the officers of this Conference discuss ways and means of setting up an annual examination for the purpose of detecting occupational diseases.

A discussion was held on the freezing of the Superintendent's past time in the trade in relation to his pension credits. It was pointed out that the Superintendents are covered in general by Article V, Section 3; thus their time is frozen as of the time they left the trade.

A clarification of the problems surrounding Article XI of our International Constitution and By-Laws was given by President Sickles. President Sickles said that the Chairman of IDCNA Labor Relations Committee, Granville Drowns had signed and accepted Article XI. This Article was also signed by President Sickles, thus making this Article the accepted Article of record. President Sickles reported that some locals are signing agreements with the International Article XI incorporated in them, so the ice is being broken.

The Credential Committee reported 14 locals in this Conference. 13 reported for this meeting. The combined delegates represent 38 allowable for one Conference. There were 35 delegates present. The Conference President dismissed the Committee with thanks.

The Audit Committee reported that the books of Treasurer Ay are in order and was also dismissed with thanks.

Local No. 20, Long Beach, Calif., asked the Conference for the privilege of hosting the next meeting. Without opposition, Local No. 20 was granted their request.

Conference President Calegory announced that a banquet is to be held starting at 7:30 p.m. in the hall above our meeting room.

The second day of the Conference was devoted to reports and discussions on the Western States Conference Pension Plan.

All of the delegates to this Conference meeting expressed their feelings regarding the very fine Conference meeting, and especially the fine time shown by the host Local No. 69 to delegates and families.

A motion was made, seconded and passed, that this Conference meeting adjourned at 12:05 p.m., Sunday, June 21.

Respectfully submitted,
J. Wayne Kelly,
Secretary

JUST 1 VOTE

In 1960, John F. Kennedy's national plurality was less than one vote per precinct. He defeated Vice President Nixon by less than 120,000 votes out of almost 69 million votes cast.

In the 1962 elections:

- The Governor of North Dakota was elected by only 2,007 votes
- The Governor of Vermont was elected by only 1,348 votes
- The Governor of Maine was elected by 483 votes
- The Governor of Rhode Island was elected by 398 votes
- The Governor of Minnesota was elected by 91 votes

Less than half of the eligible voters in the United States voted in the 1962 election.

In 1948, President Truman won Ohio by 7,107 votes and California by 17,865. If one Truman voter in each precinct in these states had stayed away from the polls, Governor Dewey would have captured 50 more electoral votes, President Truman would have lost 50, and the election would have been thrown into the House of Representatives!
